TITLE VII. GENERAL PROVISIONS—(Extract.)

SEC. 3. No Cart, Truck or Dray, whether loaded or otherwise, and not employed in the transportation of goods, for hire or wages, and no Milkman's Cart shall be driven or used in any street, lane, avenue or public place in the City of New-York, without having the name of the owner thereof painted with a black paint upon a white ground, on the square of the after part of the shaft of such Cart, Truck or Dray, plainly to be seen, under a penalty of Five Dollars, to be sued for and recovered from the owner or owners, or drivers thereof, severally and respectively.

The following rules are to be observed by the Cartmen:

1st. Each Cart must have the number NEWLY and PLAINLY painted with black oil paint, in figures 2½ inches in length, upon a white ground, on the square of the after part of the shaft on each side.

2d. Each Cartman, on the day designated for his class, must appear with his horse and cart at west side of the Park, ranging in a single line along Broadway, between Chambers and Murray sts. giving a space around each in order that the Superintendent or Inspector may examine the numbers and condition of the Carts, &c.

3d. Each Cartman must produce his present License in order that it may be renewed.

By order. ASHER TAYLOR, First Marshal.
