WHITMAN LEARNS CONNOLLY'S STORY OF SEWER DISPUTE

Prosecutor Visits President of Queens at His Home, Where He Is Ill.

CRAIG MADE CHARGES

Favoritism in Awards of $600,000 in Contracts Meets With Denial.

PIPE AGENTS ACCUSERS

Hearings Delayed for Man Who Drove Stolen Automobile Here From Jersey.

For the first time since Charles S. Whitman and a Grand Jury began their city graft investigation, more than a month ago, Mr. Whitman did not go yesterday to his temporary office in the Criminal Courts Building. The puzzle of his whereabouts was solved last night when it was learned that he spent a good part of the day at the home of Maurice Connolly, President of Queens Borough, in Corona.

The visit had to do with sewer contracts in Queens, which have been under investigation by Comptroller Craig, the Board of Estimate and Mr. Whitman. In the early stages of the inquiry Mr. Craig held up $600,000 worth of contracts because, he said, of "suspected irregularities involving virtually the entire administration of Queens." Mr. Connolly accused Mr. Craig of talking loosely and asked for a Grand Jury investigation.

Mr. Connolly has been laid up for many weeks by inflammation of the spinal nerves, and, although recovering, is not yet allowed to walk. Yesterday's meeting was arranged by a mutual friend of Messrs. Connolly and Whitman. The ex-Governor was accompanied by one of his assistants, Arthur M. King, who has been concentrating on the question of city contracts. The session lasted more than three hours.

Papers Support Connolly.

Mr. Connolly, it is understood, gave the whole history of the sewer contracts and turned over papers supporting his version and calculated to clear him of any possible suspicion. It was reported last night that in the course of his dictated statements other members of the Board of Estimate were mentioned. This Mr. Connolly denied.

"I have not discussed any member or members of the Board of Estimate with Mr. Whitman or anybody else at any time," he said. He would not admit that the visit had taken place, but said: "As to any visit that Mr. Whitman may have made at my home, I refer you to Mr. Whitman."

Favoritism in the letting of contracts has been the basis of the charges relating to the Queens contracts. Agents of various kinds of sewer pipe have accused one another and public officers. Before the Board of Estimate on Wednesday James Rice, engineer in charge of Queens construction, testified that, instead of showing partiality, Mr. Connolly really had broken a monopoly. Mr. Rice was complimented by Mayor Hylan.

O'Brien's Case Postponed.

Thomas O'Brien, arrested last week and held on a charge of bringing a stolen automobile here from New Jersey, was taken to the Washington Heights Court yesterday for a hearing. His counsel, Alexander Karlin, contended that there was no case against him and that Frederick J. Groehl, representing Mr. Whitman, was keeping O'Brien in jail merely to pump him.

"That," said Mr. Groehl, "is far from being the case. I know that this man has stolen at least fifty automobiles, and he has made an affidavit implicating several members of the automobile squad of the Police Department."

The hearing was adjourned until tomorrow and O'Brien was taken back to the Harlem prison, as he has not yet obtained a bondsman for the amount of his bail, $10,000, which was continued.

BOY MOTOR DRIVER, 18, SENT TO REFORMATORY

Guilty of Manslaughter in Case of Three Deaths.

Alfred Hyde, 18 years old, a high school student of Springfield, Mass., was sent to the New Jersey State reformatory and fined $1,000 yesterday by Judge Watson in the Court of Quarter Sessions, Paterson, N. J., after he had been found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the deaths of three persons in an automobile accident Christmas day.

Hyde drove a machine that got into collision with an automobile owned and operated by Adolph E. Schneeweiss in Clifton, N. J. Schneeweiss and two other occupants of the car—Mrs. William Buzi of Lodi and Louis Sherman of Paterson—were killed. The jury recommended mercy, but Judge Watson said he was going to make an example of Hyde as a warning to other reckless drivers.

BIBLE SOCIETY FINED.

The American Bible Society of America, Inc., of No. 6 Bible House, Manhattan, was fined $500 in the Court of Special Sessions, Brooklyn, yesterday for failing to live up to its obligations as landlord of the Osmund apartments, 1122 to 1142 Pacific street, Brooklyn. Since the conviction of the society several weeks ago, the property has been sold for a price reported to be $110,000.

FARMERS CALLED TOGETHER.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A call for a mass meeting her April 20 was issued to-day to members of the National Farmers Union by its president, Charles S. Barrett, who declared he was prompted by "the perilous condition of agriculture."

DEATH THREAT FOR MEXICANS.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 18.—Notices threatening death to all Mexicans in west Texas oil fields were posted last night at Eastland, according to word received here. The police at Eastland announced that protection would be afforded Mexicans.

JOS. J. RYAN'S WIDOW IS FAR FROM DISTRESS

Father-in-law Provides, Will Contest Reveals.

Mrs. Nannie Ryan, who was cut off with only $100 by the will of her husband, Joseph J. Ryan, is not in want, but is being supported in Rome by her father-in-law, Thomas Fortune Ryan, according to statements made yesterday by attorneys before Surrogate Foley in the argument on Mrs. Ryan's application to be appointed temporary administrator of her husband's estate.

"Joseph J. Ryan's personal estate," said Joseph A. Flangant, a lawyer, "did not amount to more than $25,000, and his interest in his mother's estate was only enough to bring the total up to about $60,000. The talk that Mrs. Ryan is in want is nonsense. Her multimillionaire father-in-law, Thomas Fortune Ryan, for a long time has seen that she received all the amount called for under the separation agreement."

Mr. Flangant represented Mortimer Y. Shuford, the lawyer who drew Ryan's will, and who was charged by Mrs. Ryan's attorney, Richard H. Clarke, as being not only a legatee under the will, but a friend of Miss Dorothy Lucille Whiteford, the legatee of the residue of the Ryan estate. Mr. Clarke charged also that Mr. Shuford was unfriendly to Mrs. Ryan.

Surrogate Foley reserved decision.
