THE CRESCENT

MORNING, OCTOBER 23, 1852

COME, RANGERS.

Rally! Rally!! Rally!!!

Come, Scott Rangers, in full force. Come, ye Whigs, with the best disciplined and most gallant army of soldiers in the world. Come, ye Democrats, by gallantry and daring—how well do you know Old Leader Cassius of Lundy's Lane—how he met bristling bayonets at Chippewa—how he earned promotion to the position of Major-General before he was thirty—how he has ever been the true man, the brave and gallant soldier, and the able and accomplished General—history records and the world knows. How upon the Canada frontier, how in the Florida wars, how in the turbulent upheavings of South Carolina nullification, he was the calm Pacificator and the able Negotiator, is written in history, and familiar to every American ear. How, in Mexico, he was the great and sole administrator of a vast empire. How he was there the embodiment of law, order, justice and statesmanlike sagacity—even after a brilliant and hard-fought, but brief, contest, is, all, known by heart by the very boys of our country. We need not sum up the life of Scott—it is American history, and a part of the history of nations. To every American eye he has been a hero—on every American tongue a theme of eulogy—in every American heart a chambered guest of honor—until now that he is a candidate for the Presidency! Now, the pack of partisans chase him, in the full cry of defamation.

They call him a "Native American"—and he has boldly claimed enlarged privileges of naturalization, and frankly stated that the heroism of our naturalized citizens upon the field of desperate battle had swept away all the prejudice of disappointment. They call him "Fuss and Feathers," because, at once the Murat and the Napoleon of our armies, upon the day of battle he shrinks from no danger, and stands in the tempest of lead, conspicuous in the uniform of his rank; but they never state how kindly, and mournfully, and tenderly, he, who stood the plumed and spangled chieftain in the battle's perilous storm and shock, bent, when its struggle was over, above the humblest pallets of his sick and dying soldiers. They call him a sectional traitor, but they never name his advocacy (at Castle Garden) of the Compromise measures in their darkest hour of doubt and struggle! They call him the mere tool of Seward, and yet they speak of him as impetuously haughty and unpardonable! They call him an statesman, but they never speak of his pacification of the Canada frontier, of South Carolina nullification, of the Cherokee troubles, etc. They never mention the high eulogies passed upon his wisdom and sagacity by Clay, Monroe, and Jackson, and Cass and Shields. They have even gone so far as this: brutally they have dug up the dead Clay and Jackson, and lifted up the mouldering dead as prize fighters against Winfield Scott, the nation's honored hero, represented by them as a quivering coward!

Voters of Louisiana! You have a reputation for frankness, high tone, large hearts and common sense intelligence. Will you not give your country's Hero a vindication and a triumph? Will you not trample slander so atrocious as that levelled against him, down in to the dust? Will not your hearts swell nobly out to enshrine the Patriot and the Soldier of the Union? Will you take Pierce, unknown and the embodiment of negatives, or Scott, whose life has its record and its pledge upon the pages of forty years of glorious American history? Do you chose the Political Eunuch or the Hero-Statesman? Dying, the Grecian Hero, Epaminondas, said, "I leave two immortal daughters, the victories of Leuctra and Mantinea." And Scott, if falling in the Presidential contest, may as proudly say, that he leaves immortal daughters—Lundy's Lane, Fort St. George, Chippewa, Chapultepec, Churubusco, etc., which will nobly give testimony of him to the future. Shall not those daughters—American all—have upon them the seal of a descent of fame and Presidential honors—realized in the election of WINFIELD SCOTT?

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

The people of Louisiana must not forget that on TUESDAY, Nov. 2, the Day of the Presidential Election, they have, also, to vote upon the adoption of the new Constitution.

For several years past, they have been bound down by a restrictive, unprogressive, and anti-republican Constitution.

Against this, the old (present) Constitution, we have charged, and charge, these things, among others:

1st. It makes inequitable, discourteous, unwise, and unparalleled provisions against any thing like the acquisition of citizenship. A citizen of Mississippi, coming to reside in this State cannot acquire the right to vote, without an uninterrupted domiciliation within the State, of two years: a citizen of Louisiana, becoming a bona fide resident of Mississippi, will be a citizen in one year. Upon this point, the relation and comparison of things are inequitable. A man may reside here eighteen or twenty-three months, and, then, if ill-health or business call him out of the State for more than ninety consecutive days, he has to come back with two more years between him and the elective franchise. This is unreasonable, illiberal and suspicious. And the new Constitution does away with all of it.

2d. The old (present) Constitution makes odious "Native American" distinctions between native and naturalized citizens. The latter may have lived here five, ten or twenty years, but they cannot vote until two years after their naturalization—in other words, they must be, under any circumstances, legalized citizens of the Union for two years, before they can exercise their rights as such within the limits of Louisiana.

In the old (present) Constitution, a similar distinction against them and in favor of native born citizens, exists, in reference to eligibility to office.

The new Constitution does away with all this.

3d. The old (present) Constitution admits of no incorporation, no legal existence and rights, of associated capital, for a longer period than twenty years—not even for such necessary objects as building railroads and creating internal improvements.

It requires at least six years to build and "mount" a railroad of any length, at least ten more (under the most favorable circumstances) to earn back the original capital invested, and then, only four years are left in which to realize the interest upon the whole investment for twenty years! What capitalist will invest his money, to add to the wealth and prosperity of the State and to give profitable employment to thousands of poor men, with such a blank prospect of certain loss and hair-brained foolishness, as the present Constitution of Louisiana now reveals to him?

The new Constitution recognizes the great utility and profit of railroads, and encourages the capitalist to lay out his means for the construction of railroads, and to thereby give profitable employment to laborers, and increased prosperity and revenue to the State. It is not like the old Constitution, opposed to railroads and swift travel, and in favor of mule-drawn wagons and mud-roads.

4th. The old (present) Constitution gives the people but one legislative session in two years. If, in the meantime, public or private wrongs press, or public or private rights suffer, there is no remedy but to "grin and bear it." The new Constitution does away with this, by providing for annual sessions of the Legislature.

5th. The old (present) Constitution gives the appointment of judges to the Governor, and thereby makes it a matter of partisan and autocratic favor. The new Constitution gives the choice to the people, and by providing that one of the Supreme Judges shall be elected every [illegible] throughout the State, with the best disciplined and most gallant army of soldiers in the world. Now he is assailed by gallantry and daring—how well do you know Old Leader Cassius of Lundy's Lane—how he met bristling bayonets at Chippewa—how he earned promotion to the position of Major-General before he was thirty—how he has ever been the true man, the brave and gallant soldier, and the able and accomplished General—history records and the world knows. How upon the Canada frontier, how in the Florida wars, how in the turbulent upheavings of South Carolina nullification, he was the calm Pacificator and the able Negotiator, is written in history, and familiar to every American ear. How, in Mexico, he was the great and sole administrator of a vast empire. Now he was there the embodiment of law, order, justice and statesmanlike sagacity—even after a brilliant and hard-fought, but brief, contest, is, all, known by heart by the very boys of our country. We need not sum up the life of Scott—it is American history, and a part of the history of nations. To every American eye he has been a hero—on every American tongue a theme of eulogy—in every American heart a chambered guest of honor—until now that he is a candidate for the Presidency! Now, the pack of partisans chase him, in the full cry of defamation.

They call him a "Native American"—and he has boldly claimed enlarged privileges of naturalization, and frankly stated that the heroism of our naturalized citizens upon the field of desperate battle had swept away all the prejudice of disappointment. They call him "Fuss and Feathers," because, at once the Murat and the Napoleon of our armies, upon the day of battle he shrinks from no danger, and stands in the tempest of lead, conspicuous in the uniform of his rank; but they never state how kindly, and mournfully, and tenderly, he, who stood the plumed and spangled chieftain in the battle's perilous storm and shock, bent, when its struggle was over, above the humblest pallets of his sick and dying soldiers. They call him a sectional traitor, but they never name his advocacy (at Castle Garden) of the Compromise measures in their darkest hour of doubt and struggle! They call him the mere tool of Seward, and yet they speak of him as impetuously haughty and unpardonable! They call him an statesman, but they never speak of his pacification of the Canada frontier, of South Carolina nullification, of the Cherokee troubles, etc. They never mention the high eulogies passed upon his wisdom and sagacity by Clay, Monroe, and Jackson, and Cass and Shields. They have even gone so far as this: brutally they have dug up the dead Clay and Jackson, and lifted up the mouldering dead as prize fighters against Winfield Scott, the nation's honored hero, represented by them as a quivering coward!

Voters of Louisiana! You have a reputation for frankness, high tone, large hearts and common sense intelligence. Will you not give your country's Hero a vindication and a triumph? Will you not trample slander so atrocious as that levelled against him, down in to the dust? Will not your hearts swell nobly out to enshrine the Patriot and the Soldier of the Union? Will you take Pierce, unknown and the embodiment of negatives, or Scott, whose life has its record and its pledge upon the pages of forty years of glorious American history? Do you chose the Political Eunuch or the Hero-Statesman? Dying, the Grecian Hero, Epaminondas, said, "I leave two immortal daughters, the victories of Leuctra and Mantinea." And Scott, if falling in the Presidential contest, may as proudly say, that he leaves immortal daughters—Lundy's Lane, Fort St. George, Chippewa, Chapultepec, Churubusco, etc., which will nobly give testimony of him to the future. Shall not those daughters—American all—have upon them the seal of a descent of fame and Presidential honors—realized in the election of WINFIELD SCOTT?

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

The people of Louisiana must not forget that on TUESDAY, Nov. 2, the Day of the Presidential Election, they have, also, to vote upon the adoption of the new Constitution.

For several years past, they have been bound down by a restrictive, unprogressive, and anti-republican Constitution.

Against this, the old (present) Constitution, we have charged, and charge, these things, among others:

1st. It makes inequitable, discourteous, unwise, and unparalleled provisions against any thing like the acquisition of citizenship. A citizen of Mississippi, coming to reside in this State cannot acquire the right to vote, without an uninterrupted domiciliation within the State, of two years: a citizen of Louisiana, becoming a bona fide resident of Mississippi, will be a citizen in one year. Upon this point, the relation and comparison of things are inequitable. A man may reside here eighteen or twenty-three months, and, then, if ill-health or business call him out of the State for more than ninety consecutive days, he has to come back with two more years between him and the elective franchise. This is unreasonable, illiberal and suspicious. And the new Constitution does away with all of it.

2d. The old (present) Constitution makes odious "Native American" distinctions between native and naturalized citizens. The latter may have lived here five, ten or twenty years, but they cannot vote until two years after their naturalization—in other words, they must be, under any circumstances, legalized citizens of the Union for two years, before they can exercise their rights as such within the limits of Louisiana.

In the old (present) Constitution, a similar distinction against them and in favor of native born citizens, exists, in reference to eligibility to office.

The new Constitution does away with all this.

3d. The old (present) Constitution admits of no incorporation, no legal existence and rights, of associated capital, for a longer period than twenty years—not even for such necessary objects as building railroads and creating internal improvements.

It requires at least six years to build and "mount" a railroad of any length, at least ten more (under the most favorable circumstances) to earn back the original capital invested, and then, only four years are left in which to realize the interest upon the whole investment for twenty years! What capitalist will invest his money, to add to the wealth and prosperity of the State and to give profitable employment to thousands of poor men, with such a blank prospect of certain loss and hair-brained foolishness, as the present Constitution of Louisiana now reveals to him?

The new Constitution recognizes the great utility and profit of railroads, and encourages the capitalist to lay out his means for the construction of railroads, and to thereby give profitable employment to laborers, and increased prosperity and revenue to the State. It is not like the old Constitution, opposed to railroads and swift travel, and in favor of mule-drawn wagons and mud-roads.

4th. The old (present) Constitution gives the people but one legislative session in two years. If, in the meantime, public or private wrongs press, or public or private rights suffer, there is no remedy but to "grin and bear it." The new Constitution does away with this, by providing for annual sessions of the Legislature.

5th. The old (present) Constitution gives the appointment of judges to the Governor, and thereby makes it a matter of partisan and autocratic favor. The new Constitution gives the choice to the people, and by providing that one of the Supreme Judges shall be elected every [illegible]

[illegible] Scott throughout Louisiana, we call upon you to be up and doing. Every man do his part, and every man with a Scott ticket as the ballot box! ——

Rally out your neighbors, and see that every man votes for Winfield Scott.

Beware of the tricks and lust hour tales of your opponents. They will be thick as Autumn leaves in Your path; but like Scott, in one of his most glorious contests, you must know how to recognise the enemy, even in concealment and the dark.

MACHINVILLE BARBECUE—Change of Day.—Editors of the Courier:—You will please announce in your paper that the Democratic Barbecue will take place on Tuesday, the 26th inst. The friends of Pierce and King are invited to attend. JOS. SMITH, Secretary.

Oh! ah! yes! We republish gratuitously from the Courier of yesterday. Don't you think the postponement a capital joke, neighbors?

QUEER.—Now, does not the following item look queer among the regular telegraphic items published in yesterday's Courier:

"MASSACHUSETTS POLITICS—Boston, October 21.—The democrats and free-soilers in this city have formed a coalition, as far as the State ticket is concerned, while in other regards they stand on the respective platforms."

City Bonds.

"Two advertisements in this paper from the office of the Commissioners of the Consolidated Debt of New Orleans are designed to carry into effect the provisions of the new city charter, for extending and consolidating and securing the debts of the old city, the three former Municipalities and the city of Lafayette. The first further proposals for the purchase of one million three hundred thousand dollars of new city bonds, payable here in forty years, with six per cent. interest semi-annually in the city of New York; and the second invites offers to exchange for bonds of this description, the unmatured bonds and obligations of the city or any of its former sub-divisions. The clause of our charter by which this is authorized is in the thirty-seventh section, as follows:

"The Mayor, Comptroller and Treasurer, and the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the two Boards of the Common Council, shall constitute a commission to be called the Commissioners of the Consolidated Debt of New Orleans; and they shall have power to issue bonds of the city of New Orleans having not more than forty years to run, with interest, payable at such place as may be agreed upon between said commissioners and the parties to whom the bonds are issued, in semi-annual coupons, in exchange for any bonds, obligations or debts of the old Corporation or of any of the Municipalities, whether matured or not; or to sell the new bonds and apply the proceeds to the payment of the matured debts of the old Corporation or of the Municipalities, but to no other purpose.

"By the supplementary act annexing Lafayette, the same provisions were extended to the debt of that district, and the Mayor and the Comptroller and the Commissioners were further empowered to sell such amount of bonds as might be necessary to pay the interest on the consolidated debt which may accrue before July, 1852.

"Two millions of bonds were recently sold in New York, and the proceeds applied to the discharge of all the unmatured debts, and providing for the accruing interest.

"This exhausts the power of the city to issue bonds for any purpose whatever, except for the purpose of paying old existing debts, or for exchange for unmatured obligations. It is for this object that these proposals are now issued, and it must be understood that they are not for the purpose of increasing the city debt. They are intended to change its character and convert it into an obligation of the consolidated city, entitled to the benefits of the rigid securities which the new charter provides for the payment of principal and interest.

"These securities make the new bonds of the city an investment inferior to none in the country. The present amount of the city bonds can never be increased; and as fast as it is paid off it can never be renewed, so as to interfere with the specific guarantees given by the law for these bonds. No debt can ever be contracted except by consent of the people, given at a special election, for some single object or work named in the ordinance approved; and every such ordinance must provide the means for paying the principal and interest of the debt, and be irrepealable until those are discharged.

"These new bonds are therefore a preferred charge on the resources of the city, and the law has made ample provision for them. It is made by the charter the duty of the Common Council to pass in the month of January in each year an ordinance to raise the sum of $650,000 by a special tax on lands and slaves to be called 'The Consolidation Law Tax;' and to ensure the performance of this duty punctually, it is provided that all ordinances, resolutions or other acts passed by the said Council after the first day of January in each year, shall be null and void, unless the ordinance imposing the consolidation law tax shall have been previously passed.' These bonds, therefore, have the security of $70,000,000 of capital upon which they are specific and first liens.

"We recapitulate these details, which are familiar to our home readers, to explain to parties abroad how perfect and solid is the security for these bonds. They constitute an investment as safe as can be found anywhere in this country or abroad."

We take the above just remarks from the Picayune of yesterday morning, and we will add that the present debt of the city, $7,700,000, must, by the provisions of the new charter, be reduced every year. The annual income or tax of $650,000, must first be applied to the payment of the interest, and the residue to the redemption of a portion of the bonds issued under the act of Consolidation. As soon as the debt is reduced to a uniform one, bearing 6 per cent. interest, the annual interest will be $462,000, which will leave of the $650,000 about $190,000 to be applied to the redemption of the bonds issued by the Commissioners.

In addition to the intrinsic value which these bonds will have, growing out of the certainty of the payment of the interest, and the solvency of the principal, they will have an additional value from being the basis of Free Banking. It seems to be generally conceded that upon the adoption of the new Constitution, that the bonds of the Consolidated City will be adopted as one of the bases of Free Banking. There cannot, therefore, be any investment which presents more advantages than the bonds of the new city.

The policy of the Commissioners as developed in the two adjustments, which will be found in our columns, seems to be most judicious. For, as soon as the debts shall be reduced to an uniform one, there can no longer be any changes in their value, save that which necessarily grows out of the fluctuations of trade. The marked change which has taken place in our city securities since the organization of the Board of Commissioners, conveys a very high compliment to the skill and wisdom of the course which they have pursued. They found the city without credit—its obligations at a discount of twenty per cent.; in the course of a few months they have negotiated a loan at above par, (which is, we believe, the first time that either city or State securities were ever negotiated above par,) sufficient to pay off the matured obligations, and have provided means in London, New York, and at the Treasury, to meet the interest as it matures. A result so complimentary to the Commissioners and so gratifying to the city, could scarce have been anticipated in the short space in which it has been accomplished.

Boats Leaving Port Today.

See Table on Third Page.

For telegraphic news, see third page.

The City Intelligence will be found on the first page.

We are indebted to the officers of the mail steamer Florida for Mobile papers.

Thanks to the officers of the Josiah Lawrence for St Louis papers.

LARGE BUSINESS.—Our commercial columns show a large business for the past week in cotton, the sales having reached fully 45,000 bales. Of this amount, no less than 12,000 bales were disposed of yesterday.

THE GLENDY BURKE.—This splendid and popular N. O. and Vicksburg packet, will, hereafter, leave on Saturday, instead of Friday evening.

Late Publications.

J. C. Morgan, Exchange Place, adjoining the Post-office, has sent us "The Cabin and the Parlor; or, Slaves and Masters," by J. Thornton Randolph; T. B. Peterson, Philadelphia. This work is reported to be an answer to "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

B. M. Norman, No. 14 Camp street, has sent us a copy of the same work.

BRIDGEWATER PAINT.—We take the following from a Northern paper, expressive of what we have so repeatedly said of this celebrated mineral paint, and we are pleased to see that in many of our country exchanges in the neighborhood of where depots exist for the sale of it that the most flattering accounts are fully verified:

We cannot refrain from calling the attention of the public to this paint. It is an article of real utility, and one that cannot fail of coming into general use. From a pamphlet issued by the company, we are informed that the mineral from which they manufacture their paint was accidentally discovered in the Bridgewater range of mountains, New Jersey, while mining for copper; it was found to be a perfect chemical combination, and for the last two years has been subjected to the severest tests that can be applied—and in every instance found to possess all the qualities that are claimed for it. In a few weeks it becomes a perfect slate, impervious to water and proof against the effects of sparks and cinders. It hardens under water as well as above, thus rendering it almost invaluable for ships' use—it has been used extensively on Staten Island and Governor's Island, where it has necessarily been exposed to salt air, so destructive to paint generally, and found to retain its color and consistency, as well as in less exposed situations.

Boots, Shoes and Brogans,

AT WHOLESALE.

Now landing from ship Norfolk, and in store, a general assortment of BOOTS, SHOES, BROGANS, HATS, CAPS etc. Plantations supplied with prime RUSSET [illegible] WOOL, MEXICAN, PALM LEAF, STRAW and CAMPEACHE HATS, the lowest market prices, by jy13 3pts W FROS & [illegible]

RALLY! RALLY!! RALLY!!!—SCOTT RANGERS.—The Scott Rangers will meet at their Club room, over the PERIL, 1843, Chartres street, on SATURDAY EVENING, October 23, at 7 o'clock, to attend a meeting at the house of Congress and Levee streets, 2d Ward District.

By order of CHARLES M. WATERMAN, President.
A. LABORDE, R. TOUT, Jr., A. SAUVEUR, Secretaries. oct23

RALLY! RALLY!! RALLY!!!—SCOTT AND GRAHAM CLUB OF THE THIRD DISTRICT.—The members of the Club will meet at their Hall, (Schooler Pratt's,) corner of Rampart and Conondelet streets, EVERY MONDAY EVENING, at half-past 7 o'clock. All the other Clubs of the city are respectfully invited to attend. The Committee Room of this Club is at No. 15 Bueza's Buildings, Exchange Place. [oct 14] JAS. W. DUPLESSIS, Sec'y.

STATE TREASURER.—Editors Crescent: Please announce that GEORGE H. BRIANT, Esq., who has been for the last five years a subaltern Clerk in the Treasury Department, will be supported for the office of STATE TREASURER, by oct21 tc MANY FRIENDS.

FOR GOVERNOR.—We are authorized to announce Colonel RICHARD HAGAN as a candidate for Governor of the State, under the new Constitution. oct7 3pts

TO PERSONS RUPTURED.—The many permanent and effectual cures made by Dr. Sherman are deserving of more than a passing notice. For particulars see his advertisement on next page.

60 Camp Street. 60

THE CABIN AND THE PARLOR; or, Slaves and Masters. Complete in one duodecimo volume, 330 pages, full of beautiful illustrations, from original designs by Stephens; by J. Thornton Randolph. Price 50 cents.

JUST RECEIVED AT THE
"NEW ORLEANS STATIONERS' WAREHOUSE," 60 Camp street and 12 Bank Place.

....ALSO....

NORTHWOOD; or, Life North and South, by Mrs. J. S. Hale.
MRS. HALE'S NEW BOOK OF COOKERY and complete Housekeeper—illustrated
THE BIVOUAC; or, the Divol Falcons, by Col. W. H. Maxwell.
BARNETT'S LIFE OF GEN. FRANKLIN PIERCE, in 1 vol.
MANSFIELD'S LIFE OF GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT.
WINFIELD SCOTT, the Hero of Many Battles, to which is added a Sketch of the LIFE OF HON. WM. A. GRAHAM, with illustrations.

For sale by J. B. STERI, oct22 3tdp&tiw 60 Camp street.

To City and Country Dealers.

The subscriber has received this day, per Wm. Penn, a large variety of 200 SIX SHOOTING of the latest and most approved construction, for sale, wholesale and retail, at lowest market prices. Also,

PISTOLS AND RIFLES

FARO BOXES AND CHEQUES; BILLIARD BALLS;
COMBS, BRUSHES AND PERFUMERY;
FINE SHIRTS OF SUPERIOR MAKE AND FINISH;
LINEN AND GAUZE UNDERSHIRTS AND DRAWERS;
MERINO AND COTTON " "
SILK AND FLANNEL " "
COTTON AND SILK SOCKS;
SILK AND SATIN SCARFS AND CRAVATS, new pattern;
LADIES' AND GENTS' KID GLOVES;
SILK AND COTTON UMBRELLAS, fine and strong;
WORK BOXES, TRAVELING DESKS, DRESSING CASES, etc., etc., etc.

The stock will be replenished by continual arrivals from the North and Europe, and comprises

THE BEST VARIETY IN THE CITY,

all of which will be offered at most favorable prices.

GUION'S,
oct12 1m7p Corner Canal and St. Charles streets.

Re-Opened.

NORRIS & WAY,
CLOTHIERS,
CORNER CAMP AND COMMON STREETS, under City Hotel,

Have just opened, at their recently improved store, their usual NEW AND SUPERIOR ASSORTMENT OF

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING,

CONSISTING OF

OVER COATS; DRESS COATS; FROCK COATS; BUSINESS COATS; DERBY COATS, etc.

TOGETHER WITH

FANCY CASSIMERE PANTS

FALL AND WINTER VESTS

of the latest and most beautiful styles. Their stock of

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS

also being very large and complete, they are now prepared to furnish their friends and the public generally with

EVERY ARTICLE OF APPAREL PERTAINING TO A GENTLEMAN'S WARDROBE.

Being constantly in receipt of the latest novelties by every arrival from the North, they will continue, throughout the season,

A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT.

oct19 3pd NORRIS & WAY, under City Hotel.

The Southern Ladies Book,

FOR NOVEMBER,

is now ready for delivery from the office of Publication, No. 103 St. Charles street, and 21 Commercial Place. Agents for this work will call on the publisher during the present week, and fill the specimen number and solicit subscription. oct18 3pd

Fancy Furnishing Warehouse.

P. MALLARD & CO.,
67 ROYAL AND 80 BIENVILLE,

Have received, by recent arrivals from Europe, one of the richest assortments of

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES

ever imported into this city, consisting of—

ROSEWOOD AND MAHOGANY BEDSTEADS; ARMOIRS;
VOILET TABLES;
PIER TABLES;
CENTRE TABLES;
CARD TABLES;
CENTRE AND SIDE ETAGERES; DINING TABLES;
MINISTRY AND OTHER WRITING DESKS;
BOOK CASES;
SIDEBOARDS;
WASHSTANDS;
FANCY SEWING CHAIRS;
PARLOR AND BED ROOM SETS, etc., etc.

UPHOLSTERY ARTICLES:

LAMPAS, BROCATELLE, SILK AND WOOL DAMASKS, FOR DRAPERIES; LACE, DOUBLE AND MUSLIN EMBROIDERED CURTAINS; BOBINET, LACE AND MOSQUITO NETTING; LOOPS, TASSELS AND GIMP FRINGES; CURTAIN PINS, CORNICES, etc.

CHINA, GLASS AND BRONZE WARE:

SERVICES CHINA AND PORCELAIN DINNER AND TEA SETS; VASES; JARDINIERES; BISCUIT AND PORCELAIN STATUETTES AND FANCY ORNAMENTS FOR MANTEL, AND ETAGERES; LOOKING GLASSES; BOHEMIAN AND CRYSTAL GLASSWARE; CLOCKS; CHANDELIERS; HALL LAMPS; BRONZE STATUETTES AND CANDELABRAS; PAPIER MACHE AND SILVER PLATED WARE; CUTLERY AND TINWARE, etc.

CARPETING, MATTING, OIL CLOTH, etc., etc.

oct15 6tdp P. MALLARD & CO.

Carpeting—Carpeting.

AT 23 CHARTRES STREET.

A BROUSSEAU & CO. have received, by late arrivals, a very large and splendid assortment of CARPETING, such as—
Superior VELVET AND BRUSSELS TAPESTRY;
BRUSSELS, THREE PLY, INGRAINS, VENETIANS, etc.;
Figured BATTS and LINEN SUPER Round Checks, WINDOW SHADES;
STAIR RODS, TABLE AS PIANO COVERS, RUGS of all kinds;
White and Colored MATTING, etc., etc.
FLOOR OIL CLOTH, from 8 to 24 feet wide, of various qualities, all of which they offer at LOW PRICES, FOR CASH or satisfactory paper.

oct18 1w1p

RE-OPENING at No. 36 St. Charles street of the BRANCH OF F. MORRAU'S ESTABLISHMENT, No. 131 Royal street.—The establishment having been closed on account of repairs, the proprietor informs the public that it is re-opened to-day, SATURDAY, October 16.

The Store, which is considerably enlarged, will enable the proprietor to increase his stock so as to justify the patronage with which he has hitherto been favored.

M. MORRAU, being convinced that selling low is the only mode of bringing forward big sales, intends reducing his articles to the most limited prices. His therefore offers for sale, from this day, GENUINE JOUVIN'S GLOVES, AT ONE DOLLAR A PAIR.

The GENTLEMEN'S HAIR DRESSING SALOON has been removed to the Second Story. It has been tastefully furnished, offers every desirable comfort, and can compete with, if not surpass, any establishment of the kind in the United States. [illegible]

Stationery.

CURSON & ARMSTRONG,
NO. 59 CAMP STREET,

Respectfully call the attention of those wishing good and serviceable

STATIONERY AND BLANK BOOKS, to their LARGE, COMPLETE and ENTIRELY NEW STOCK, which they offer on reasonable terms. Their

BINDING AND PRINTING OFFICE

being located in the same building, they are enabled to give their special attention to all orders in their line. To our stock of oct15 3pd CURSON & ARMSTRONG, Stationers, 59 Camp st.

PAPER

WE ASK ESPECIAL REFERENCE.

New Goods.

The subscribers have received, by recent arrivals, a handsome assortment of embracing all the newest and most desirable styles.

SEASONABLE CLOTHING AND GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,

THOMPSON & NIXON,
oct15 3pd 16 Camp street, opposite City Hotel.

New Goods.

D. P. SCANLAN & CO.,
NO. 12 CHARTRES STREET,

Will open on Monday, October 18, a complete assortment of LADIES' and MISSES' VELVET, SILK and STRAW BONNETS, received per Eudora Queen, from Havre; also, a splendid assortment of VELVET, CLOTH and MERINO CLOAKS; VELVET, SILK and SATIN MANTILLAS, for Ladies and Misses; WHITE and COLORED MERINO CLOAKS, Richly Embroidered, for Infants; a complete assortment of DRESS SILKS, CASHMERES, MOUSSELINE DE LAINES, BAREGES AND SILK TISSUES, for Street and Soirée Dresses; EMBROIDERIES; RIBBONS; PLUMES and FLOWERS; together with a general assortment of FANCY GOODS, to which they respectfully call the attention of the Ladies.

oct18 3pd D. P. SCANLAN & CO.

Mantillas—Mantillas.

Just received per steamship Wm. Penn, at

SIMPSON'S, 50 CANAL STREET,

a large stock of the latest styles of manufactured under the direction of Mme. MOREY, of Broadway, New York, expressly for this city, and guaranteed to be unsurpassed for beauty and neatness combined. Among them are—

MANTILLAS,

EMBROIDERED MANTILLAS;
CHAMELEZIN MANTILLAS—PLAID FRINGE;
TURC SATIN MANTILLAS—LACE TRIMMED;
MANTILLAS TRIMMED WITH SONT GRAVELVET;
WATERED SILK MANTILLAS;
PLAIN BLACK SILK MANTILLAS;
PRINCESS TRIMMED MANTILLAS;
MALE MOURNING MANTILLAS;
CLOTH MANTILLAS;
MISSES' MANTILLAS;
CIRCULAR CLOTH CLOAKS FOR LADIES;
COBURG CLOAKS, AND MANY OTHER STYLES,

ALL AT VERY LOW PRICES.

oct15 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

Hosiery Just Opened.

LADIES' WHITE COTTON HOSE—ALL QUALITIES;
LADIES' BLACK " " " "
LADIES' BROWN " " " " CHILDREN'S " " " "
CHILDREN'S WHITE " " " "
GENT'S WHITE HALF HOSE " " "
GENT'S BROWN " " " "
GENT'S COLORED " " " "

....ALSO....

GINGER VESTS, DRAWERS, etc., etc., for adults and children, all other prices, at

SIMPSON'S,
oct15 tf 50 Canal street.

Planters

Desirous of filling their entire Dry Goods bill AT ONE HOUSE, are recommended to examine at

SIMPSON'S, 50 CANAL STREET,

as his stock embraces all kinds of fabrics, from OSNABURGS to the MOST MAGNIFICENT DRESS GOODS, of which he sells any quantity desired at prices generally average

TWENTY PER CENT. LOWER than those of any other house in New Orleans, for cash or city acceptance.

oct15 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

Silks—Silks.

PER STEAMSHIP CRESCENT CITY.

SUPERIOR TABIE SATIN—All colors.
GROS DE AFRIQUE—New styles.
RICH BROCADE SILKS.
BLACK GROS DE RHINE.
BLACK WATERED SILKS,

oct15 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

Linen Cambric Handkerchiefs

AT GREAT BARGAINS.

Ranging from One Dollar per dozen up, comprising all styles for Ladies, Gentlemen or Children, at oct8 tf SIMPSON'S, 50 Canal street.

Embroidered Handkerchiefs.

An immense lot just opened, all of late styles, from 12½ to 12½, guaranteed to be cheaper by the piece than at any other house in New Orleans.

oct8 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

Domestics at Boston Prices.

All descriptions, from 4½ to 12½, guaranteed to be cheaper by the piece than at any other house in New Orleans.

oct8 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

New Trimmings.

—JUST OPENED—

BLACK VELVET RIBBONS—ALL WIDTHS;
COLORED " " " "
SATIN RIBBONS;
PEARL EMBROIDERED GIMP—ALL COLORS;
PEARL LACE GIMP
With other late styles of TRIMMINGS, at oct8 tf SIMPSON'S, 50 Canal street.

250 Crape Shawls,

Just received per Crescent City, ranging from $10 EACH TO $40,

bought at a GREAT SACRIFICE in New York, and will all be sold at a very small advance. The assortment comprises

PLAIN EMBROIDERED AND COLORED SHAWLS OF THE LATEST PATTERNS.

oct8 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

Bargains in Flannels.

Just opened a superior stock, consisting of

DIMET WHITE AND RED FLANNELS;
ALL WOOL WHITE AND RED FLANNELS;
FANCY COLORED FLANNELS;
RED AND WHITE TWILLED FLANNELS;
ANGOLA AND SUPERIOR GAUZE FLANNELS.

....ALSO....

BROWN AND BLEACHED COTTON FLANNELS.

All guaranteed to be as cheap as they can be purchased in New York.

oct8 tf SIMPSON, 50 Canal street.

To the Ladies.

SIMPSON, 50 CANAL STREET,

Has just opened—

FRESH KID GLOVES—White, Black and Colored.
EMBROIDERED SKIRTS—Beautiful Styles.

Also, a full supply of

HOUSEKEEPING DRY GOODS,

Comprising BLANKETS, COUNTERPANES, CURTAIN GOODS TABLE DAMASKS, NAPKINS, TOWELINGS, CRASH, etc., all as cheap as the most economical can desire, at oct8 tf SIMPSON'S, 50 Canal street.

Bay and Boarding School

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

CONDUCTED BY

MRS. DIMITRY AND ABLE ASSISTANTS.

The above School has opened its TENTH ANNUAL SESSION, and is now ready to receive Pupils.

Strict attention is paid, as well to the moral training as to the intellectual development and physical weal of the Pupil.

For terms, apply in person, or by letter, at the Institute, TIVOLI CIRCLE, BETWEEN DELORD AND NAYADES STS. oct11 3mdp

Public Night School,

FIRST DISTRICT.

THE SCHOOL will be open NIGHTLY for five months from MONDAY, October 4, from half-past 6 to 9 o'clock, the Male Department at the Marshall School on St. Mary's street, and the Female Department at the Franklin School on St. Charles street. Applications for admission to be made at the respective School Houses or to either of the undersigned.

FRED. CAMERDEN, 24 Gravier st.,
W. L. CUSHING, 85 Common st.,
D. BLEBER, 18 Old Levee, Committee.

The First in Fashion!

The Fall Style, 1852, for sale at D'ARCY'S, oct14 rp&ap4f cor. Chartres and Canal sts.

Hats and Caps at Wholesale.

DAVID TAYLOR & CO.,
NO. 25 CUSTOM-HOUSE STREET,

Have just received by the latest arrivals from the North, a large and well selected stock of

FALL AND WINTER HATS AND CAPS

FOR MEN, BOYS AND CHILDREN,

which they offer to country merchants and city dealers at low prices on favorable terms. The assortment, which has been selected with great care, comprises the latest styles and patterns, and consists in part of the following:

MEN'S BLACK SILK AND FUR HATS of all qualities and shapes;
MEN'S KOSSUTH, MAGYAR, JENNY LIND, PAROLI, etc., of all colors and shapes;
MEN'S WOOL HATS of all colors and shapes;
CLOTH CAPS of all qualities and shapes;
GLAZED CAPS of all qualities and shapes;
SILK CAPS of all qualities and shapes.

DAVID TAYLOR & CO., (Successors of Taylor & Hayne,)
sep18 3pd 25 Customhouse street.

Boots and Shoes.

The undersigned have received within the last few weeks, and have on it a way, over $130,000 worth of

BOOTS, SHOES AND BROGANS,

of every description and quality, selected with great care from the various manufacturies of Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

THIS STOCK IS ONE OF THE LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTED EVER OFFERED IN THIS CITY, and country merchants and dealers would do well to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere, as these goods are offered at low prices and on accommodating terms.

To country merchants, more particularly, who contemplate laying in their fall supplies, we confidently recommend this stock, and ask their to call and examine for themselves.

DAVID TAYLOR & CO.,
(Successors of Taylor & Hayne,)
sep13 3pd 25 Customhouse street.

Hats, Caps, etc.

AT WHOLESALE.

One hundred cases HATS, comprising a great variety of SILK, FUR, CASSIMERE, MEXICAN, WOOL, STRAW, PALMLEAF and CAMPEACHY HATS, for sale by jy12 3pts W FROST & CO., 10 Magazine View.

Young Men's,

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S

CLOTHING.

By late arrivals per steamship Crescent City, the MOST COMPLETE AND CHEAPEST assortment of YOUNG MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING, to be found in the city.

WM. STUART,
jun1 tsaadp 72 Magazine st.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE CONSOLIDATED DEBT OF NEW ORLEANS.
New Orleans, October 22, 1852.

By virtue of the thirty-seventh section of the act of the Legislature