SALESWOMEN.
Good Paying Positions Open
For Women of a Higher Type.
The opening of a woman's department in a long established company offers ambitious women an opportunity to earn from $50 to $100 weekly at the start, with exceptional possibilities for advancement.
For this we require women of refinement and ability to uphold properly the high standing of our organization. We are adhering to the modern policy of giving women the same opportunity as men to make the same money and occupy the same important positions.
A number of women will be required at once for permanent full-time positions, but the building up of this new department enables us to offer part-time employment to teachers and others who do not wish to make an immediate change but must add to their incomes.
See Mrs. Turner.
