OFFICIAL REPORT.
BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.

Tuesday, October 26, 1852.

Present [illegible] adjournment: [illegible] the Hon. F. Alpuente, Messrs. Bailey, Burthe, Derbes, Dolhonde, Forbes, Heermann, Leeds, McCormack, Nixon, Place, Shaw, Siewerssen, Stetson, Summers, Sykes, Watkins and Willson.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

The following message of the Mayor was read:

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS,
October 26, 1852.

To the Hon. President and Members of the Board of Aldermen, and the Assistant Board of Aldermen of the City of New Orleans:

GENTLEMEN—I have caused you to be convoked this day, for the purpose of taking a becoming action on the death of the great American statesman Daniel Webster. On the receipt of this melancholy intelligence on Sunday, I issued a proclamation, recommending to my fellow citizens to abstain from their ordinary business avocations on Monday, and to display the usual emblems of mourning, as a testimonial of the reverence and esteem in which this mighty pillar of the Republic was held. I am happy and proud to say that this recommendation was very generally observed; but the people of New Orleans, yielding to none other in their admiration of that genius, patriotism and eloquence, the like of which may not be sought for since the last of the great Triumvirate, Calhoun, Clay and Webster, has paid the debt of nature—deem that an occasion so afflicting, and which has bowed down a whole nation in mourning, should be marked by a more formal observance than the hasty but sincere expression of feeling manifested yesterday.

Accordingly, a public meeting was held at the Arcade yesterday, at which, among other appropriate and expressive resolutions, it was resolved that a committee of ten citizens be appointed by the Mayor, to confer with similar committees of the Common Council and other public bodies, who shall constitute a general Committee of Arrangements, for the purpose of selecting a day and making the necessary preparation for a solemn funeral pageant, in honor of the great dead.

In conformity with this resolution, I beg to apprise your honorable body that I have appointed the following gentlemen on that committee, and would respectfully urge the nomination of a joint committee on the part of the Common Council, to co-operate with the citizens in paying a tribute worthy of the city of New Orleans to the memory of the departed statesman and patriot, Daniel Webster.

Committee—Samuel J. Peters, John R. Grymes, A. M. Holbrook, W. L. Cushing, Wm. Monaghan, T. A. Adams, Joseph Genois, John L. Lewis, Manuel Garcia, H. R. W. Hill.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your ob't serv't.
A. D. CROSSMAN, Mayor.

Mr. Forbes presented a preamble and resolutions, expressive of the regret of the Council at the demise of Daniel Webster.

Mr. Heermann moved to refer the said preamble and resolutions to a Special Committee of four, and to also take a recess of ten minutes; which motions prevailed.

The Board having reassembled, Mr. Forbes, on behalf of the committee, presented the following, the rules being suspended, and moved their adoption:

Whereas, a great man is with us no more. An eloquent voice is hushed in our national councils. A mighty champion of the Union and the Constitution no longer stands up in the front ranks of national patriots. A man of massive eloquence, and clear logic—eloquence affecting and logic convincing—no longer walks through the busy thoroughfares of life, but has gone to the silent cities of the dead—a model for emulation and a theme for history. A great and magnificent statesman, who yesterday stood up loftily in our national councils, and spoke boldly the true and fervent sentiments of nationality, lies inanimate and speechless in the narrow grave. In brief, the melancholy announcement to the American people is, that Daniel Webster—a man of all time—an orator for all ages—a statesman for the Union—an embodiment of American sentiment and character, always bold and yet calm—positive and yet forbearing—quick and yet chivalric in vindication, is no more. It is the loss of a nation. A pillar of the Union is crumbled into dust.

Be it therefore resolved, by the City Council of New Orleans, etc., That, in the death of Daniel Webster, the Union has lost a great support, and the American people a magnificent representative.

Resolved, That the death of a truly great statesman, such as Daniel Webster was, is a mournful dispensation, which calls for the most earnest and solemn commemoration of such a grave national affliction.

Resolved, That in the loss of so great a man, whose merits were grand in the dignity of the statesman, the eloquence of the orator, the wisdom of the negotiator, and the nationality of the American, our country realizes an impoverishment of national fame and national intellect.

Resolved, That we are fully prepared to join in any demonstration expressive of our consciousness of this public calamity, and that for six months the Council Chambers be shrouded in the usual emblems of mourning.

Mr. Place moved to strike out the preamble.

Mr. Forbes moved to lay the motion on the table, which was carried.

A message was received from the Board of Aldermen notifying the Board of the adoption of resolutions relative to Artesian Wells, and the appointment of Messrs. Converse, Labatut, Lugenbuhl and Burke as a committee thereon.

Mr. Leeds moved to refer the preamble and resolutions presented by Mr. Forbes back to the committee.

Mr. Bailey moved, as an amendment, that they be referred to a new committee of the same number as the one which reported thereon.

Mr. Derbes called for the previous question, which was carried.

The previous question being ordered, Mr. Nixon moved to divide the subject and take the vote separately on the preamble and resolutions, which motion prevailed.

The question being divided, the yeas and nays being called on the adoption of the preamble and resolutions, resulted as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Bailey, Burthe, Derbes, Dolhonde, Forbes, Heermann, Siewerssen, Stetson and Sykes—9.

Nays—Messrs. Leeds, McCormack, Nixon, Place, Shaw, Summers, Watkins and Willson—8.

The President being empowered to vote under the rules, gave a vote to the minority and declared the preamble not adopted.

Mr. Forbes asked leave to withdraw the resolutions accompanying the preamble, which was not granted.

The yeas and nays being called on the adoption of the resolutions, they were unanimously adopted, the rules being dispensed, and the President voting in favor of same.

Mr. Nixon offered the following preamble to the said resolutions, and the rules being suspended, it was read and adopted:

Whereas, His Honor the Mayor has announced to this Board the death of Daniel Webster.

Consequently the preamble and resolutions were adopted, as follows:

Whereas, His Honor the Mayor has announced to the Board the death of Daniel Webster, therefore

Be it resolved by the City Council of New Orleans, That in the death of Daniel Webster the Union has lost a great support, and the American people a magnificent representative.

Resolved, That the death of a truly great statesman, such as Daniel Webster was, is a mournful dispensation, which calls for the most earnest and solemn commemoration of such a grave national affliction.

Resolved, That in the loss of so great a man, whose merits were grand in the dignity of the statesman, the eloquence of the orator, the wisdom of the negotiator and the nationality of the American, our country realizes an impoverishment of national fame and national intellect.

Resolved, That we are fully prepared to join in any demonstration expressive of our consciousness of this public calamity, and that for six months the Council chambers be shrouded in the usual emblem of mourning.

On motion of Mr. Nixon, the President appointed the following members on the part of the Board, to confer with similar committees, for the purpose of selecting a day and making the necessary preparations for a funeral pageant in honor of the late Daniel Webster, to-wit: Messrs. Nixon, Place, Heerman, Derbes, Burthe, Dolhonde, Watkins and Philbrick; and

On motion of Mr. Derbes the Board adjourned to to-morrow, Wednesday, the 27th inst., at six o'clock, P. M. WALTER H. PETERS, Secretary.

OFFICIAL.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.—Read the following testimony of its efficacy: TIONESTA, Venango county, Pa., May 22, 1851. This is to certify that I have been using B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge in my family for the last ten years, and have always observed its good effects in expelling worms; unlike other kinds of Vermifuge which I have used, it does not leave a fever on the child, but expels the worms without any injurious effects following. About six months ago I gave one teaspoonful of it to my little girl, seven years old; after taking it she passed two hundred worms. I only mention this as one among many instances in which I have observed the good effects of the Vermifuge. JAMES C. DAWSON. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS AND IMITATIONS. SAMUEL REYNOLDS cures CANCERS, SCALD HEAD, WHITE SWELLING, SORES and ULCERS of every description.—181 Gravier street, New Orleans.—From numerous testimonials is taken the subjoined certificate of a well known respectable citizen, to the efficacy of my treatment:

NEW ORLEANS, October 5, 1852.

S. REYNOLDS, Esq.—Dear Sir: I beg to express to you my thanks and grateful acknowledgment for the great benefit I have received from your treatment, and to announce that my Two Cancers are perfectly eradicated, which has been owing to your medicine and treatment are superior to any other practitioner's. I have suffered extreme agony for the past thirty years previous to my acquaintance with you, and had sought relief from Dr. Gilbert in vain. For six months Dr. Gilbert operated on me, and in his treatment gave me a fearful amount of purgatory, but though he pronounced me cured, the Cancers returned in a much worse form in a few months afterwards. Despairing of relief, and meditating the amputation of my arm, I was induced to apply to you, although I had no hope of receiving relief, but only went as a last resource. My faith in Dr. Gilbert was such as to preclude a belief that any one else could treat so virulent a case successfully. I find that your treatment is mild and effective. I thank a kind Providence for directing me to your office, and trust that you may be the means of alleviating numbers of the human family now suffering from Cancerous Diseases, who only require to know your address to be at once cured by your medicine and treatment. Eighteen months having elapsed since you treated me, I am warranted in assuring you that I am perfectly cured. JOHN F. HOYT, Hatter, corner St. Charles and Common street.

Rich's Safes Unrivaled.

Messrs. STEARNS & MARTIN, Successors to Rich & Co., No. 146 Water street, New York: GENTLEMEN—It is with great pleasure we have to inform you that at the great fire which consumed our store and three others, also the jail, we preserved all our books and papers in one of your SALAMANDER SAFES, purchased from your agent in Charleston, Mr. L. M. Hatch. The safe was built of green pine, and the heat was truly terrific. The crowd present witnessed the 14th of any thing saving such as it did; and the Safe was opened in the presence of the Sheriff and many others, and the contents were found in perfect condition except what came from the Safe, without a stain, except what came from the salamander.

We shall call upon you next month to select another safe, and remain, Yours, respectfully, WILLIAMS & CHRISTIE.

The foregoing letter demonstrates the wonderful capacity of RICH & CO.'S SAFES to resist fire; and when it is considered that this ALONE, among many articles represented to be SAFES, protected the contents in either of the recent great fires in Paulton, New York, Chillicothe, Ohio; Wetumpka, Ala.; Rodney, Miss., or Edenfield, S. C., it must be admitted that the cost (ESPECIALLY SINCE THE REDUCTION OF PRICES) bears no proportion to the value of such a reliable depository for books, papers, jewelry, money, and other small but valuable articles. The subscriber, sole agent in this city of the manufacturers, has for sale a large and good assortment of RICH & CO.'S SALAMANDER SAFES, and is prepared to prove, by the testimony of several of the most reputable merchants in this and other cities, that entire confidence may be placed in the article under any circumstances. ISAAC BRIDGE, 25 Magazine street.

World's Safe Company.

THE attention of the public is called to the utility and superiority of these Safes over all others. Our Safes are made on an entire new principle. We first form a case or crate strongly made from wrought iron plates or bars, around which a composition of cast-iron is run, making the iron and the cast-iron impossible to be got together. To thoroughly test, it is only necessary to say, "Nature [illegible] Mechanic," she leaves no holes or crevices, rivets or screws, for the thief or burglar to operate upon, with perhaps less effort than was required to put them together. Neither can the burning element make an impression on the solid mass, lined as it is with a fire-proof wall.

We hesitate not in saying, that these Safes, secured with LILLIE'S EMPIRE DRILL AND POWDER PROOF COMBINATION BANK LOCKS, are the only really secure depository for money or other valuables. We say further, there is no institution in any of the popular Safes or Bank Vaults now in use. They are all the work of one man, and often purchased with experience hardly experienced.

This Company is now prepared to furnish at short notice SAFES and BANK VAULTS, of various sizes, for Banking institutions, Mercantile Firms and individuals—all of which will be warranted Drill and Powder Proof, when secured with Lillie's Bank Locks.

A sample of the above Safes and Locks, together with Day & Newell's Parautoptic Bank Lock, can be seen at the office of W. W. WHITE, No. 18 Camp st. L. C. PETERS, Agent, 21 Camp street.
