SHIPPING NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

PLANS NEW SERVICE FOR COAST TO COAST

Garland Steamship Company to Place Seven Big Freighters on Line.

The Garland Steamship Company of New York, which has not been active since the war but has been quietly adding to its fleet through purchase of up-to-date tonnage, will shortly place seven large freighters in a coast to coast service through the Panama Canal, it was learned yesterday.

Beginning late in December or early in January, sailings every two weeks will be maintained between New York, Baltimore and Norfolk and Los Angeles, San Francisco and Portland, Ore. The ships to be placed in the run are the Norlena, 7,300 deadweight tons; Carolinian, 7,000 tons; William Perkins, 8,800 tons; James B. Duke, 9,030 tons; George Allen, 9,050 tons; Albert Jefferiss, 9,020 tons, and William Campion, 9,030.

Preparatory to resuming active ship operation the Garland company will move from the present offices at 511 Fifth avenue to 44 Whitehall street, taking the space formerly occupied by the Dollar Steamship Company. Branch offices will be opened at Baltimore and Norfolk. J. D. Spreckels Company will act as agent for the ports of San Francisco and Los Angeles and McCormick & Co. will be agent at North Pacific ports.

William Campion has resigned as traffic manager of the British-American Tobacco Company and will act solely as vice-president and general manager of the Garland Steamship Company.
