UNITED STATES HOTEL at PHILADELPHIA.—The subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the traveling community, that he has assumed the proprietorship of the UNITED STATES HOTEL. Long known in connection with the Hotel under the late proprietor, he feels perfectly safe in promising its old patrons, that nothing shall be wanting to confirm its previous reputation as the best kept house in the country. No expense has been spared in completely refitting the entire establishment, and he particularly invites attention to the changes introduced for the convenience and comfort of ladies. Firmly determined to give satisfaction, he solicits a continuance of that patronage always so freely bestowed on the old United States. [my28 3m] A. G. ALLEN.

TO TEACHERS and TRUSTEES of PUBLIC and COMMON SCHOOLS.—In press, and will be published on the First of September, a new and improved edition of HART'S POPULAR SYSTEM of PRACTICAL GEOGRAPHY, for the use of Public and Common Schools, corrected from the census of 1850.

This work, so long and favorably known among Teachers, has elicited the following recommendation:

NEW-YORK, Tuesday, July 15, 1851.

I have long been familiar with a PRACTICAL GEOGRAPHY, by JOSEPH C. HART, containing a full and well-digested arrangement of Questions on Maps, better adapted for Exercises than any other Manual used in our Schools. This little work will be equally applicable to all the correct Atlases in use. I am pleased to have an opportunity to recommend this Geography to our Common School Teachers throughout the State. JOSEPH McKEEN, County Superintendent of Common Schools for the City and County of New-York.

Also, early in September, will be ready for delivery, SMITH'S IMPROVED ATLAS, with additional Maps and corrections from the late census, well calculated to illustrate Hart's Geography. CADY & BURGESS, Publishers, No. 6 John-st. au25 2tis

"A MOST EXQUISITE TALE."—D. APPLETON & CO. publish on Tuesday, 10, a Tale of the Ancient Race, by T. E. Bartos. One volume, paper cover, 50 cents; cloth, 75 cents. This work is a novelty in the world of fiction. The scenes are laid in those distant years, which lie beyond that glorious epoch, the Christian era. Many of the characters belong to the noble specimens of intelligent Grecian Manhood. The style of the author is one of uncommon richness, power and splend
