YANKEE YACHT TOWS SHIP SAFELY TO PORT IN GALE.

Merton F. Plant and Crew of Venetia Prevent Belgnetine St. Antoine From Being Wrecked.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Boston, March 11. A letter received in this city from the brave crew of a yacht that had been sent by Morton F. Plant, owner of the Venetia, in a storm in the Mediterranean.

Mr. Plant, who was formerly Commodore of the Larchmont Yacht Club, had a number of his friends in a party of well-known yachtsmen, including R. P. Murray, Jr., for his Bermuda cruise on the Atlantic, sailing from Port Royal, when they saw the Belgnetine Saint Antoine in a disabled condition and fleet in distress signal.

The American gentlemen had a desire to assist the vessel, but approached in vain and was unable to help. The story of the rescue is told in the report of Captain Charles A. K. Horton of the Venetia. He says:

"After about an hour's maneuvering and several fruitless attempts we succeeded in getting the St. Antoine our hawser. As we first hauled on it it was too small and too much worn for towing. At 2:30 we proceed with her in tow for Bougie. At 5:45, during one of the heaviest squalls, our hawser parted.

"The situation became dangerous in the extreme. The crew of the schooner, exhausted, worn out, could not haul our hawser on board, and also failed repeatedly to catch the line which we reached them. The two vessels were now drifting rapidly toward the leeward coast, and the boat manned ten fathoms. We, therefore, sent a boat manned by Albert Ernst, Dolor Cross, Joseph Brown and Charles Mathews, A. B.'s, to the St. Antoine, and lent valuable assistance in hauling in the tow rope and clearing away the damaged cable and gear. When we straightened out we saw that the second time both vessels were in nine fathoms of water, with no breakers less than a mile distant. At 6:30 p. m. we bore the St. Antoine to anchorage off Bougie.

"After the schooner had anchored we boarded her, and her captain said to our executive that at about 4 o'clock in the morning the sea broke over his vessel, carrying away his deck load and left it in a condition to ship water in the hold. The engines, and crew had gone all the time. We thought if the Venetia had had a good hawser and decided to let his vessel go, his plants would not work, and he was unable to be of any assistance in any way."

WIFE GETS GUARDIAN FOR HER AGED HUSBAND.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Oakland, Cal., March 11.—Those who crowded Judge Ogden's courtroom in the expectation of a sensational battle between aged Millionaire Joseph Boardman and his pretty 27-year-old wife were disappointed. Instead of opposing her petition for the appointment of a guardian over his person and large estate, Boardman, who is nearly 80, admitted upon the stand that he did not believe that he was longer capable of managing his own affairs.

Upon his own request that a guardian be appointed, and that that guardian be W. G. Palmantier, vice president and manager of the Central Bank, Judge Ogden made an order that Palmantier be so appointed.

According to evidence, the Boardman estate, consisting in a large measure of Oakland and San Francisco real estate, brings in an income of nearly $2,000 per month.

When released Anthony was dead.

No "Spring Tired" System or "Brain Fag" for Those Who Have Nourished and Kept the Vital Forces in Action and Free from Diseases by the Aid of this God-given Medicine.

"Duffy's Is a Wonderful Tonic for the Run-down System."

W. J. HALES.

Gentlemen—I am subject to severe attacks of bronchitis, coughs and colds, and have continually bronchial trouble in one form or another. My own family doctor, who is a very warm friend, always prescribes for me Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and it has done more for me than all the medicines I have ever used. I am a builder and my business takes me out in all kinds of weather, and it is well-nigh impossible for me to avoid exposure. I am frank in telling you that I do not think I could attend to my business and I often wonder whether I would be living or not, were it not for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Your medicine is a wonderful tonic, it prevents colds and other disorders, and braces up and nourishes the weak, tired, overworked and run-down system.

W. J. HALES, Houston, Tex.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cures coughs, colds, consumption, grip, bronchitis, pneumonia and all diseases of the throat and lungs. It contains no fusel oil and is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee.

7,000 doctors prescribe and 2,000 hospitals use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations and so-called Malt Whiskey substitutes which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's," and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Look for the trade-mark, "The Old Chemist," on the label.

The genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct at $1.00 a bottle. Write for free medical booklet containing symptoms and treatment of each disease to the Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

$100,000 Through Pinkertons

If necessary to prosecute unreliable dealers and manufacturers who are offering spurious goods in bulk and otherwise for the genuine Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, we will spend $100,000, and to this end we have employed the Pinkerton Detective Agency to run down these fraudulent dealers and bring them to justice.
