New-York, March 26, 1852.
C. T. CROMWELL, Counsellor-at-Law, No. 68 Wall-st.
New-York, March 26, 1852.—My Dear Sir: The settlement of a matter of difference between Mr. P. T. Barnum and Mr. D. H. Haigh, (two gentlemen liberal and generous as the sequel shows,) through my intervention, gives me, by their consent and request, the gratefull duty of presenting to the Fire Department $250, for the relief of the Widow and the Orphan; one half in the name and on behalf of each of those gentlemen. To which I beg leave to add $50 on my own part, by way of making the matter go smooth and even.
While Counsel to the Department I had occasion to observe the practical workings of your beautiful system of charitable benevolence, and to know with what undeviating fidelity every cent donated went; and with what unerring certainty, to the well judged relief of the destitute and helpless, the relics of those who had perited comfort, health and even life for their fellows.
It affords me, Sir, unspeakable pleasure to be instrumental in assuring this small increase to the "Widows' and Orphans' Fund."
Believe me, truly, your obd't servant,
CHAS. T. CROMWELL.

☞ Third Mechanics' Building and Mutual Loan Association.—Shares limited to 1,000—700 have already been taken. The unprecedented success of the Second Mechanics' Building and Mutual Loan Association, (1,200 shares having been subscribed for before the first monthly meeting, and the subscription books consequently closed,) a very large number of persons having been disappointed in becoming members of the Second, have commenced a Third Mechanics' Building and Mutual Loan Association, having incorporated in their Constitution the same advantageous principles to shareholders which found such favor with the public, and which filled up the Second, its predecessor, so rapidly.
Any person, male or female, desirous of making his or her small earnings more than triple itself in the space of a few years, or any person who is desirous of borrowing money in order to purchase his own house on the most advantageous terms, who will but take the trouble to compare the advantages offered by this Association both to lenders and borrowers with those offered by other Associations, will at once find the key to the success of our plan; for instance:
1st. It will loan money at 6 per cent. per annum on the amount advanced.
2d. It will allow interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum to all persons who prefer paying their subscription for two months or more in advance, thus securing a double interest—firstly, the above 7 per cent; secondly, their share of profits. Persons who wish to borrow money for the purpose of buying or building their own house or farm, can here secure an advance on far more liberal terms than are effected by any other Association.
3d. Persons desirous of withdrawing from the Society, can do so at any time, by giving one month's notice, and receive back all dues paid by them, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum.
A person who will save but 14 cents a day, (and there is not one person who cannot, if so disposed,) can in this Society secure in a few years a small capital, ($1,000,) with which he can establish himself in business, and thus achieve his own independence.
The entrance fee is 50 cents per share; monthly payment, $3 per share; value of each share, $300.
Ladies and gentlemen desirous of joining can leave their names with the Secretary. J. H. SAYRE, President.
S. P. TOWNSEND, Vice President, No. 22 Nassau-st.
JACOB PEARCE, Secretary, No. 163 Hester-st.

☞ The Third Monthly Meeting of the CITIZENS' MUTUAL LOAN and ACCUMULATING FUND ASSOCIATION will be held on THURSDAY EVENING, March 1, at 8 o'clock, at their room, No. 121 Broadway, next door above Canal st. Fifteen shares will be offered for redemption to the highest bidders. The books of the Association will be closed at this meeting. Members of the Association are reminded that the dues for April are now payable, and are requested to call at the office and pay the same before Thursday, 1st inst. Office open daily from 9½ to 5 o'clock, and on Wednesday and Saturday evenings till 9 o'clock.

☞ Pamphlet Review—CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—We would advise all who feel interested in the prosperity of Building Associations, as well as those who have been deceived by the many unfounded pamphlets and other reports that have been circulated to injure these institutions, to attend the public meeting of the Second Knickerbocker Building Association, on MONDAY EVENING next, the 29th inst., at Knickerbocker Hall, at 7½ o'clock, on which occasion this Association will meet any argument that can be brought to bear against these beneficial institutions, and invite the fullest and freest discussion, publicly, at this meeting, as we feel assured that the more minutely and thoroughly the operations are discussed the more beneficial will be the result. Workingmen, mechanics and clerks, attend this meeting, as it is one of great importance to all; and we would also invite the attention of ladies to this meeting, as able speakers will be present. Mrs. Ellis's New Fascinating Story—Now Ready.

SELF-DECEPTION; or THE HISTORY OF A HUMAN HEART, by Mrs. Ellis, Author of "Hearts and Homes," "Women of England," &c. Complete in two volumes, with illustrations. Price $1, in paper; in muslin $1 25.
"This is one of the healthiest and most interesting tales of fiction that we remember to have read. It is, in truth, the history of a woman's heart, narrated as only a woman could depict it, for every minute phase of that organ of affections, feelings, and passions, is laid bare, with the skill and delicacy of a finished practitioner. Ella, the heroine, is originally a vain, self-deceiving woman, who is carried through a course of events, in which her heart and mind are trained, by trials and disappointments, to rest on the only true security we can confidently rely on in this life. The progress of the narrative introduces numerous examples of character, and a great diversity of incidents sufficient to keep the reader's attention alive, while the high moral, religious principles, naturally evolved from the story, render the work a truly valuable and unexceptionable production. It should form a portion of every lady's library in the country."
(Home Journal.
"Mrs. Ellis is one of the most accomplished female writers of England. The benevolent aim of this writer is to make her readers better, and thus render them happier. All her works are on subjects which come near the heart; and we know of no writer who has a more intimate acquaintance with all its most secret recesses than she. In the work before us, we have not only a true history, but an accurate picture of the human heart, and whoever wishes to improve their own, may here see it reflected as many of its phases as in a mirror." A Thrilling Tale of the Revolution!

THE SEVEN BROTHERS OF WYOMING; An authentic History of the Brigands of the American Revolution.
This work is a narrative of exciting interest, and exhibiting a peculiar feature in the American Revolution. The "Seven Brothers of Wyoming" were the most widely known and dreaded of that peculiar class of men, called Refugee Skinners, which the War of the Colonies of America with Great Britain called into existence. The present narrative is a truthful history of their unparalleled acts of atrocity in New-York, Philadelphia, Bucks County, Penn., and the Valley of Wyoming. It embraces, also, a vivid picture of the bloody massacre of Wyoming. The narrative is graphically written, and will repay a perusal.
Price 25 cents. H. LONG & BROTHER,
No. 43 Ann-st., N.Y., and all booksellers throughout the Union.
