Monday	3000	300	1000
Tuesday	1000	none.	none.

Of the above 5400 were American.... Stocks during the same period, none. Prices have ruled as per the leading brokers as follows:

BREADSTUFFS—We have again to note an advance in Breadstuffs, equal, on last quotations, to 1d ⅌ 20 lbs on Wheat, and 6d ⅌ bbl on Flour.... Indian Corn remains unchanged in price, with a very fair demand.

Heavy rains have prevailed in all parts of the country and with unfavorable winds at sea, have kept the market rather light of supplies. At the same time have been some certain exports of Flour, and stocks are becoming somewhat lessened. Imports into the port from the 15th November are seen, from the United States, 4841 coarse Wheat and 4284 bbls of Flour; from Canada and Colonies, none.

Exports do not seem equal to the same period. To foreign, 1626 bbls Flour; to Ireland and coastwise, 2419 qrs Wheat, 2904 qrs. Corn, 1200 sacks and 5499 bbls Flour.

Latest declared average of Liverpool market, November 15....Wheat, Gr. and Foreign, 32s 6d; Corn, 31s 5d; Barley, 26s; Peas, 34s. The bulk at Liverpool, on the 13th, showed their prices low on the 4 ⅌ 100 lbs.

RICE—Full prices are maintained; White Bengal, 14@15s.

COTTON—Without quotable decline.

TALLOW—Very brisk.

STATE OF TRADE—The Europe's advices, received at Manchester late in the afternoon, generally manifest rather better tone, and the full long bleach yarns and fabrics seem likely to be greatly in request, and, though a sense of caution is felt, the accounts from the manufacturing districts are favorable.

MONEY MARKET—English Funds another fact, rather being in excess of investment. The tone of foreign securities is firm, and, though no material change can be taken place in prices, Consols close for account 100@99¾; for money 100¼@¾. Paris Rentes, Four and Half, (Ind-day) closed 50f.

HAVRE MARKET, November 13....COTTON—Further transactions were made in Cotton this morning, which leads to the supposition that we are advancing the demand, and up to the time when other 300 bales American changed hands at prices which we point make 1 to 2 francs lower. New Orleans is in request, and 300 bales Fair Orleans, at 95c. The market for Cotton, and for all other merchandise, closed quiet. There were, however, some extensive operations in indigo at prices which did not transpire. There were no arrivals from Alexandria.

BREADSTUFFS—We have again to note an advance in Breadstuffs, equal, on last quotations, to 1d ⅌ 20 lbs on Wheat, and 6d ⅌ bbl on Flour.... Indian Corn remains unchanged in price, with a very fair demand.

Heavy rains have prevailed in all parts of the country and with unfavorable winds at sea, have kept the market rather light of supplies. At the same time have been some certain exports of Flour, and stocks are becoming somewhat lessened. Imports into the port from the 15th November are seen, from the United States, 4841 coarse Wheat and 4284 bbls of Flour; from Canada and Colonies, none.

Exports do not seem equal to the same period. To foreign, 1626 bbls Flour; to Ireland and coastwise, 2419 qrs Wheat, 2904 qrs. Corn, 1200 sacks and 5499 bbls Flour.

STATE OF TRADE—The Europe's advices, received at Manchester late in the afternoon, generally manifest rather better tone, and the full long bleach yarns and fabrics seem likely to be greatly in request, and, though a sense of caution is felt, the accounts from the manufacturing districts are favorable.

MONEY MARKET—English Funds another fact, rather being in excess of investment. The tone of foreign securities is firm, and, though no material change can be taken place in prices, Consols close for account 100@99¾; for money 100¼@¾. Paris Rentes, Four and Half, (Ind-day) closed 50f.

HAVRE MARKET, November 13....COTTON—Further transactions were made in Cotton this morning, which leads to the supposition that we are advancing the demand, and up to the time when other 300 bales American changed hands at prices which we point make 1 to 2 francs lower. New Orleans is in request, and 300 bales Fair Orleans, at 95c. The market for Cotton, and for all other merchandise, closed quiet.
