Proclamation
PAR JOSEPH WALKER,
GOUVERNEUR DE L'ETAT DE LA LOUISIANE.

Attendu que la Convention qui s'est assemblée au capitole, à Baton Rouge, dans le but de faire une Constitution, a ordonné que "Immédiatement après l'ajournement de la Convention, le Gouverneur publiera une proclamation dans laquelle il ordonnera aux divers officiers de l'Etat autorisés par la loi à organiser l'élection des membres de l'Assemblée Générale, d'ouvrir un scrutin dans chaque paroisse de l'Etat, aux endroits indiqués par la loi, le premier Mardi de Novembre prochain, pour connaître le peuple de l'Etat sur l'adoption ou le rejet de cette Constitution;" et que "les commissaires qui y auront présidé examineront avec soin et compteront tous les bulletins déposés, puis ils transmettront le résultat au Secrétaire d'Etat conformément aux dispositions de la loi actuelle sur les élections; lorsque le rapport des commissaires sera reçu, ou le cinquième Lundi de Novembre, si le rapport n'est pas reçu plus tôt, il sera du devoir du Gouverneur, du Secrétaire d'Etat, de l'Avocat-Général et du Trésorier d'Etat, de dépouiller, en présence de tous ceux qui voudront assister à cette opération, les votes donnés pour l'adoption ou le rejet de la Constitution. S'il résulte du rapport des commissaires qu'une majorité des suffrages reçus est en faveur de la ratification de la Constitution, le Gouverneur devra l'annoncer dans une proclamation, et cette Constitution sera dès lors la Constitution de l'Etat de la Louisiane. Mais que cette Constitution soit acceptée ou rejetée, il sera du devoir du Gouverneur de faire publier dans le journal officiel de la Convention le résultat de l'appel au peuple, avec le nombre des voix données dans chaque paroisse pour ou contre la Constitution." M. Hatch. The safes were built of solid pine, and the heat was truly terrific. The crowd present all had the idea of nothing standing such a fire, yet we never had confidence in the Safe. We shall call upon you next month to select another safe, and remain Yours, respectfully, WILLIAMS & CHRISTIE.

[illegible] it must be admitted that the cost (ESPECIALLY SINCE THE REDUCTION OF PRICES) bears no proportion to the value of such valuable depositories for books, papers, jewelry, money and other small but valuable articles. The subscriber, sole agent in this city of the manufacturers, has for sale a large assortment of sizes of RICH & CO.'S SALAMANDER SAFES, and is prepared to supply to the best [illegible] several of the most respectable merchants in this city, [illegible]
