FALLING IN LOVE.

One of the most mysterious and unaccountable things in the world is how people fall in love. We do not mean the gradual and equable descent by which two long-time acquaintances, steadily becoming more and more attractive to each other, ultimately grow to the inseparable. We refer to the sudden plunge—the falling of a precipice as it were—by which people become instantaneously absorbed in each other, and mutually encircled and overborne by an all engrossing, reciprocal affection. Love at first sight it is commonly called. A man may have been a great deal in society; he may have traveled over the world; he may have seen hundreds of beautiful girls; but no one has ever made any serious impression upon him. All at once he meets a glance, he percieves a female form, he encounters a woman's face, the like of which he instantaneously feels he has never beheld before. He is fascinated, enthralled, bound hand and foot for evermore.

Why it is he cannot tell—he cannot imagine. The mystery is unfathomable. There may be a disparity in years, in what is called social position, in fortune, and indeed in almost every particular. For that he cares not, or if he cares, his regrets are inoperative upon his feelings, and vain. He only knows that he has met an object which, in spite of himself, it may be, he must love and adore. And women fall in love in the same inexplainable manner, being wholly unable to explain even to themselves the reason of it—perhaps more frequently than men. What does it mean? There must be some magnetic or spiritual influence which is unknown to any system of philosophy ever yet discovered. So it has been from the beginning of the world; so it probably will continue to be to the end of time. But there is one thing about falling in love; it is not so chilling or unpleasant as falling through the ice. —[New York Ledger.

STEPHENS' OVERCOAT.—A published statement that the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens recently lost one of his overcoats at Dahlenega, Ga., has moved the Augusta Constitutionalist to relate the following: "This paragraph reminds us of an anecdote about Mr. Stephens, which General Gordon tells with much unction. Gordon had it from President Grant at Washington. 'When the three Commissioners met us at Fortress Monroe,' says Grant, 'Mr. Stephens came swaddled up from top to toe in an enormous overcoat. Lincoln called me aside, as Mr. Stephens was disrobing, and observed: 'Grant, what does that performance of Mr. Stephens' remind you of?'' I answered him: 'Mr. President, I do not know; but what does it remind you of?' With one of his queer winks, Lincoln said: 'It reminds me of the biggest shuck off the smallest ear I ever saw in all my life.'"

PIPIFAX.

THE ROSICRUCIANS WERE A SECT OF Philosophers who flourished in Germany during the seventeenth century, and prosecuted profound researches into Natural Science and Occult Philosophy, and sought to discover the ELIXIR OF LIFE.

Although some superstition may have been developed among them and other Alchemists in search for the Elixir Vitæ, yet there is scientific truth at the bottom of all Alchemy and Astrology. They were impressed with the properties of

HERBAL PREPARATIONS,

And found dynamic and psychologic force in the extract of certain plants.

PIPIFAX

Is due to the researches of a learned scholar of Europe among the archives of the Rosicrucians. It is made of

TWENTY DIFFERENT HERBS,

Gathered at such seasons of the year when their juices are strongest and virtues unimpaired, forming a combination unrivalled in the materia medica.

PIPIFAX

Is an enemy to all corruption—it assists and fortifies Nature. Its manner of operation is to

Drive to the Extreme Parts

And through the pores of the skin and all emunctories of the body, the bad humors which molest it, giving relief even in diseases the most refractory and difficult to cure, such as Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Nervous Weakness and Billiousness. It is pleasant to the taste, mild in its action, marvellous in its effects and unsurpassed as a tonic. Used as a beverage in malarious districts it neutralizes miasma and prevents fever and ague.

Action brought in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln, and the complaint filed in said county of Lincoln, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

The State of Nevada sends greeting to Thomas F. Hanly, Kennedy J. Hanley, James Shea, R. McKee, A. Bocqueraz, G. W. Chesley, J. S. Jones and F. A. Buck, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln, and answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served in said county; or if served out of said county, but within said District, within twenty days; and in all other cases, forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to recover judgment against you said defendants, Thomas F. Hanly and Kennedy J.
