Titcomb's Patent Bee Hive and Protector.

BY the use of this Hive, Bees are protected through our severe winters, on account of the even temperature of the air within it and its peculiar arrangement for ventilation, that not a swarm has been lost from the many hives used within the three years past.—It is a complete protector against the attacks of neighboring bees, bee-moths, &c., and affords peculiar facilities for replacing old brood combs by new ones. It is unequalled as a stock hive, swarms issuing from it from two to three weeks earlier than from any other hive. The surplus honey is readily obtained from it, in a pure state, without injuring the bees, in boxes of suitable size for family use or the market.

This Hive is constructed on philosophical and scientific principles, and needs only to be seen to insure its use by those who are acquainted with the instincts and natural habits of the honey bee.

AMERICAN HOTEL,

HANOVER STREET,

BOSTON.

THE undersigned having entirely refitted and enlarged the above extensive establishment, containing in all about 300 rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be made, can not be properly given in an advertisement.—Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render an apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order regardless of cost, and certain portions of it especially the drawing rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The dining rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Travelers Home. 4 27 8?

My hair is grey—but not with years;
Nor grew it white
In a single night,
As men's have grown from sudden fright.
Is this your case friend? If so, try a bottle of Lyon's Panjiri Hair Restorative. Does your hair fall out or are you afflicted with dandruff or scurf, use Bacon's Hair Wash. Is you hair dry, coarse and apt to come out, use Bacon's Hair Wash and Oil. Begley's Hair Dye and Bussing Cream constantly on hand. All the above warranted by W. A. Bacon, Ludlow, Vt. 6
