CANAL STREET HOUSE, adjoining the late Phoenix Hotel, No. 81 Canal street, between Carondelet and Camp streets, New Orleans. This House has ROOMS LARGE AND AIRY. W. H. BROWN, Proprietor. may1 1y

BOARDING.—MRS. W. S. YOUNG, 120 Perdido street, corner St. Charles, has any number of rooms and board for gentlemen. This is a quiet family, and only a few gentlemen. The house is in the most healthy square in the city, within reach of the Exchange, Post-Office and Markets. may1 1y

ARCADE HOTEL, R. S. MORSE, Proprietor.—This establishment, so favorably known in the City, will be opened THIS MORNING, Monday, November 7. The house has been thoroughly repaired and newly furnished. nov7 1y

MURPHY'S HOTEL and RESTAURANT, No. 16 St. Charles street.—This celebrated, or rather notorious, house, has been thoroughly renovated and now furnished in every particular, and is now prepared to receive its old customers and the public. No effort will be spared on the part of the proprietor or his assistants to please, every delicacy will charmed and rather be purchased reasonable. [dec4 1y] MICHAEL MURPHY, Proprietor.

SAM'S OYSTER SALOON.—This NEW AND EXTENSIVE SALOON, which is now ready to receive its customers, is unquestionable one of the finest in the South, is located at 101 ST. CHARLES STREET.
Mr. WILL, being Tender on WAHL, has been connected with the business in this city for the last ten years, having commenced from 25 Orleans, where he established the first Oyster Saloon in the Second Municipality, connected with the Old Hot Brick, and been successful in his enterprise. With such an experience, and an impossible desire to serve the public faithfully with the best in his line, "Sam Sailor" has fitted up his establishment in a style unequaled. A large supply has been engaged in filling up the SALOON, and providing its BAR with the CHOICEST LIQUORS that can be procured. SERVANTS well known for their polite attention to customers, are employed in every best choice. The CARDER will always be stocked with the best of PICTURES AND GAME, and the OYSTERS SERVED in a manner unknown by the establishment (in short, in extreme or moderate) will be spared to render this Saloon worthy the patronage of the fastidious epicure. may1

STRONGS.—The undersigned respectfully announces to the public that he has opened a HOTEL under the above name, adjoining the St. Charles Theatre, in a style not surpassed by any in the city, and has spared no pains to make it one of the most agreeable resorts of the kind now in St. Charles street. Well-aired rooms to any number, and the best of fare, will be found at the STRONG HOUSE. This will be a cool LEMONADE stand all summer. HENRY STRONG, Proprietor.
