CHARITY HOSPITAL.—The report of the Charity Hospital for the week ending Saturday, viz:

Admissions	244
Discharges	37
Deaths	21
Patients remaining	976

INQUEST.—Deputy Coroner W. C. Terrill yesterday held an inquest on the body of Mary Sarah, corner of Bolton and Dauphine streets. Verdict of the jury—Death by a blow received from her husband, Thomas Sarah, in a fight, which was concluded by her death. The deceased was a quiet and inoffensive woman, and the husband is a comparatively old man, of quiet habits, and has been in the employ of the Gas Company for a long time. The fight, it appears, took place in the presence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Dumont, who by long throws under the care of a physician, and who, it is feared, will be a cripple for life. The evidence in the case showed that Mrs. Dumont took passage in the cars for Gentilly, since, having stopped, they did not remain sufficiently long enough for her to get out in safety, but in attempting to leave, she was thrown down and dragged a short distance, when she was rescued by a gentleman, who assisted her to her residence. The accident was occasioned by the impudence of the young lady herself. Counsel for plaintiff, Mr. Cozzens; for defendant, Mr. Cohen.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held yesterday at No. 19 Exchange, corner of Common and Front Levee, on the body of a negro man known as Cockney Jim, who died in the Marine Hospital, on Friday night last. Deceased had been in the employ of the Marine Hospital for a long time, and was a quiet, inoffensive man. Verdict of jury—Death from a fit of apoplexy.

INQUEST.—An inquest was held on Saturday on the body of a negro man found dead in a black ash on the right bank of the Shreveport road, near the Metairie Lake. The jury, after a long consultation, rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by natural causes, and that no further inquiry was necessary, and that the deceased be buried at the expense of the city.

ATTEMPT TO KILL.—Officer James yesterday arrested a negro boy in Poydras Market who, on the same morning, had stabbed and lay dangerous in Lafayette Market, for attempting to steal a watch-key.

Several negroes were arrested for assault and battery, but the parties in each case had left before the officers could get to them.

The accident was occasioned by the impudence of the young lady herself. Counsel for plaintiff, Mr. Cozzens; for defendant, Mr. Cohen.
