EADIE ON THE EPHESIANS.—Just received and for sale by BANGS BROTHERS, No. 13 Park-row.
A COMMENTARY ON THE GREEK TEXT OF THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS. By John Eadie, D. D., LL. D., Professor of Biblical Literature to the United States Presbyterian Church, Glasgow, R. Griffin & Co.
"My object has been to exhibit the mind and meaning of the Apostle, not only by a scientific analysis of his language, but also by a careful delineation of the logical connection and sequency of his thought. * * * * The Greek fathers have been often referred to, and the most recent German commentators have been examined without partiality or prejudice." [Preface.

DESTRUCTIVE ART OF HEALING; or, FACTS FOR FAMILIES, has proved a "great success" in England. Three editions sold in as many months, which is quite extraordinary
