A GREAT BOOK ON TURKEY.
TURKEY AND THE TURKS:
A Record of Travel in Turkey and a Cruise in the Black Sea with the Captain Pasha.
By ADOLPHUS SLADE,
Now Admiral of the Turkish Fleet.
This romantic history is the best work on Turkey ever published. The name of the author, who has lived many years in Turkey, and the high position he now holds in the Turkish Navy, are a sufficient guarantee for the originality and intense interest of the work.
Booksellers who wish an early supply of the above book will please send their orders to W. H. GRAHAM, New-York.

"WHO IS MRS. PARTINGTON?"
AS the PUBLIC MIND has been considerably agitated of late as to who Mrs. Partington is or was, we will communicate the important fact to the public that Mrs P. is a foreign importation—an English invention. Alas! for the honor of our native land—alas! for the pride and glory of "Boston!"—the first mention of the venerable old lady we find in one of the late Sidney Smith's speeches made during the Reform agitation. He said: "I do not mean to be disrespectful, but the attempt of the Lords to stop the progress of Reform reminds me very forcibly of the great storm at Sidmouth, and of the conduct of the excellent Mrs. Partington on that occasion. In the winter of 1824, there set in a great flood upon that town; the tide rose to an incredible hight—the waves rushed in upon the houses, and everything was threatened with destruction. In the midst of this sublime and terrible storm, Dame Partington, who lived upon the beach, was seen at the door of her house with mop and pattens, trundling her mop, squeezing out the sea water, and vigorously pushing away the Atlantic Ocean! The Atlantic was roused; Mrs. Partington's spirit was up; but I need not tell you that the contest was unequal. The Atlantic Ocean beat Mrs Partington. She was excellent at a slop or a paddle, but she should not have meddled with a tempest. Gentlemen, be at your ease; be quiet and steady; you will beat Mrs. Partington." Our immediate business, however, is with the New-York "MRS. PARTINGTON AND HER CARPET-BAG OF FUN," with over 150 COMIC DESIGNS by the first Artists, and 1,000 Sayings, Doings, Stories, Jokes, Anecdotes, and other mirth inspiring matters. It is going off like "Hot Cakes." It is an elegant volume of 300 pages, and sold at 50 cents. In cloth, gilt, with tinted title by Darley, 75 cents. GARRETT & Co., Publishers, No. 18 Ann-st.

SHEIL'S SKETCHES OF THE IRISH BAR.
On the 1st of February
Will be published, in 2 volumes, 12mo., price Two Dollars, with original portrait of the author and fac simile of his letter, "Sketches of the Irish Bar, by Right Hon. Richard Lalor Sheil, M. P., with Memoir and several hundred Notes, by Dr. Sheldon Mackenzie."
THESE SKETCHES, by Ireland's most brilliant orator, are now collected for the first time. They include notices of the leading members of the Irish, English, and Scottish Bar for the last sixty years. Among the eminent persons thus sketched are O'Connell and Shell; Lords Brougham, Plunkett, Denman, Norbury, Avonmore Clare, Clonmel, Manners, Campbell, Eldon, Lyndhurst, Abinger Thurlow, Denman, and Jeffrey; Sir Michael O'Loghlin and Sir Thomas Wilde; Chief Justices Blackburne, Lefroy, Joy, Doherty, Bushe, Pennefather, and O'Grady; Judges Perrin, Burton, and North, and a variety of other legal notabilities. There also are notices of the Duke of Wellington, Marquis Wellesley and his American bride, Sir Robert Peel, Sir Francis Burdett, Sir Jonah Barrington, Lords Grey and Durham, Sir Harcourt Lees, Cobbett and Hunt, Chief Baron Wolfe, with Grattan, Curran, and other celebrated men. Among the remarkable trials related or referred to are those of Robert Emmet and the Sheareses. In a word, these "Sketches of the Irish Bar" will be an unique repertory of legal anecdote, history, and biography. Published by J. S. REDFIELD, Nos. 110 and 112 Nassau-st.
