MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1858.
COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS.

No. 646.

An ordinance concerning the Fire Department of the city of New Orleans, and providing for its support.

Article 1. Be it ordained, That the location of the several apparatus constituting the Fire Department of the city of New Orleans, as now apportioned, is hereby continued; and that hereafter they be confined to the following limits in the discharge of their duties, (except as hereinafter provided for) and no Engine, Hose or Hook and Ladder Company shall remove their apparatus out of the house in which the same is located, without the permission of the Council.

The companies located in the First District shall attend fires in the First, Second and Fourth Districts.

Those in the Second District shall attend fires in the First, Second and Third Districts.

Those in the Third, shall attend fires in the Second and Third Districts.

And those in the Fourth District shall attend fires in the First and Fourth Districts, provided they are not called out of their Districts by a general alarm, which shall be indicated by a constant ringing of the fire alarm bells.

Art. 2. Be it further ordained, That whenever a fire occurs in any part of the city, it shall be the duty of the respective Captains of Police, or the officers on duty at the time, to cause all the fire alarm bells under their control to be loudly rung, designating by taps of said bell the District in which the fire may be.

The First District shall be indicated by one tap.

The Second District shall be indicated by two taps.

The Third District shall be indicated by three taps.

The Fourth District shall be indicated by four taps.

And whenever a fire occurs in the night, it shall be the duty of all watchmen to cry "fire! fire! fire!" spring their rattles, cry the District in which the fire may be, and as near as practicable the name of the street.

Art. 3. Be it further ordained, That at all fires, it shall be the duty of the police to keep the space immediately in front of the same free from intrusion by persons not rendering aid at the fire, that the firemen may be enabled the better to discharge their duty, and, in case of danger effect their escape.

Art. 4. Be it further ordained, That no Fire Engine, Hose or Hook and Ladder Company, or any tender attached thereto, shall be permitted to run on the sidewalks of this city, or through any of the markets or public squares, under a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars for each offence; and it is hereby made the duty of every police officer to report any infraction of this article to the Comptroller, who shall forthwith deduct said amount from the appropriation due the company violating this article.

Art. 5. Be it further ordained, That no Fire Engine, Hose or Hook and Ladder Company, shall permit any person to become attached to their apparatus under the age of eighteen years, or any person who has been expelled from another company, unless he has been previously re-instated in such company.

Art. 6. Be it further ordained, That no Engine or Hook and Ladder Company shall have more than two apparatus on hand at the same time; and no appropriation of any kind or nature whatever shall be given to any Engine or Hook and Ladder Company, except such as is hereinafter provided for, it being understood that all of said companies shall fully conform to all ordinances passed by the Common Council for their government, and it being further understood that each of said companies shall always have in service one or two engines, or hook and ladder apparatus, and shall always keep a horse or horses for the purpose of conveying said apparatus to fires; and further, that the said companies are to keep said engines and trucks in good repair and condition, and to exhibit the same whenever called on to the Mayor, Surveyor or Fire Committee of the Common Council.

Art. 7. Be it further ordained, That the Surveyor is hereby authorized to deliver annually to each engine company two hundred feet of new hose, provided the same quantity of old hose be returned, and provided further that no engine company has on hand one thousand feet of hose at the time said return is required.

Art. 8. Be it further ordained, That each engine company is hereby required to carry to each fire a quantity of hose, not less than five hundred feet.

Art. 9. Be it further ordained, That the sum of eleven hundred dollars, if the apparatus is made in NewOrleans, and nine hundred dollars if made elsewhere, is hereby appropriated every third year, payable on the warrant of the Comptroller, to each engine company in the city of NewOrleans, duly chartered and in active service, for the special purpose of procuring a new apparatus; and the sum of three hundred dollars is hereby appropriated every third year additonally to each engine company, payable as aforesaid, for the special purpose of procuring a new tender; and an annual appropriation of one thousand dollars is hereby made, payable quarterly, on the warrant of the Comptroller, to each engine company as aforesaid, for the payment of their current expenses.

Art. 10. Be it further ordained, That the sum of eleven hundred dollars, if the apparatus is made in NewOrleans, and nine hundred dollars if made elsewhere, is hereby appropriated every fifth year, payable on the warrant of the Comptroller, to every Hook and Ladder Company duly chartered and in active service, for the special purpose of procuring a new apparatus, and an annual appropriation of one thousand dollars is hereby made, payable quarterly, on the warrant of the Comptroller, to each Hook and Ladder Company as aforesaid, for the payment of their current expenses.

Art. 11. Be it further ordained, That each and every efficient Fire Engine Company and Hook and Ladder Company now existing, in conformity with the foregoing provisions, shall be provided with a suitable building for their apparatus, meeting room, stable for horses, and the necessary dependencies required, the same to be kept in good repair at the expense of the city.

Art. 12. Be it further ordained, That all Fire and Hook and Ladder Companies receiving appropriations as aforesaid, shall render to the Comptroller annually on the 1st day of January, an exact statement of the expenditure of said appropriation, signed by the Treasurer, and a correct list of the active members, signedby the Foreman, or presiding officer and Secretary; and no payment of money shall be made to any company until said statement is furnished.

Art. 13. Be it further ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances now existing contrary to, or conflicting with, the provisions of the foregoing be, and the same are hereby, repealed.
