CAUTION.—SEWING MACHINES.—Last Wednesday I obtained an injunction from the United States Court in Boston, PROHIBITING THE USE OF THE SINGER MACHINES, and now have a suit pending against him here, which is soon to be tried, and, without doubt, will result in like manner. The old bug-bear of Walter Hunt was, as heretofore, the defense relied upon, the insufficiency and fallacy of which will be manifest by an examination of the full and clear decision of Judge Sprague in the case, printed copies of which are ready for free distribution if my office. By inclosing a postage stamp a copy will be forwarded to order by mail.

It is immaterial whether Machines use one or two needles with the eye near the point; without a license they are infringements, and the public will beware of incurring the liabilities of the law by purchasing infringing machines, when they can buy as good or better machines at the same or less price, without such liability from the following Manufacturers who are duly authorized by licenses under my original Patent of Sept. 10, 1846:

WHEELER, WILSON & Co.	New-York.
GROVER, BAKER & Co.	"
A. BARTHOLF	"
A. B. HOWE	"
AMERICAN MAGNETIC SEWING MACHINE Co.	"
DURGAS SEWING MACHINE Co.	"
J. B. NICHOLS	Boston, Mass.
J. W. BEAN	"
N. HUNT	"
HOOD, BATTELL & Co.	Worcester, Mass.
Messrs. WOODBRIDGE, KEENE & MOOR	Lynn, Mass.

J. J. Greenough never obtained a patent which, in the most remote degree, claimed or specified anything like my machine. Those who know from whence the reports proceed that I am about to succeed in proving my claims, and that those who do not, are informed that such reports are entirely false, and without foundation in truth. A correct and copy of said patent is at all times open for the inspection of parties interested, at my office, and if any person will therein point out any similarity between it and my own, I will forfeit $1,000; $500 to go to such person, and $500 to some charitable institution in the city, as the Mayor may designate.

Charles A. Durgin has no longer a license to make, use, or sell, Sewing Machines under my patent. It has been revoked and surrendered. ELIAS HOWE, Jr., Patentee of the Original Sewing Machine, No. 181 Hanover-st., Boston, and No. 306 Broadway, New-York. Feb. 20, 1854.

FAIRBANKS' PATENT PLATFORM SCALES.—We invite the attention of the business world to the superiority of these Scales over every other description of weighing machines now in use. Their plan of construction is philosophical and simple. The employment of two levers, with a single beam, is the most simple arrangement practicable in a compound Platform Balance. The workmanship is perfect, the bearings are broad knife-edges, placed on parallel lines, and these rest on polished steel surfaces, so dressed and leveled that the knife-edge bearings rest equally there, so dressed and leveled that the knife-edge bearings rest equally through their whole length; and in every point, skill and fidelity are obviated all tendency to derangement or wear, thus securing the perfect and permanent accuracy of the instrument.

These Scales have been subjected to the severest tests on all the principal railroads in the United States and England, and in every branch of business throughout the world; and their uniform accuracy and great durability, have gained for them the reputation of being the STANDARD from which there can be no appeal.

By the recent enlargement of our works, and the introduction of new and valuable machinery, we are enabled to offer our scales at greatly reduced prices. Counter Scales, very exact for the retail trade. Sold and warranted by FAIRBANKS & Co., No. 69 Water-st., New-York.
