MISS ELIZABETH HARDING,
Daughter of W. P. G. Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board. Her engagement has been announced.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Harding, the charming daughter of William P. G. Harding, of Washington and Alabama, to Franklin Henry Ellis, was announced last evening. The announcement was made at a dinner given at Rauscher's by Mr. Harding in compliment to his daughter. There were thirty guests, and later the entire party went on to Mr. and Mrs. Gaff's domino dance.

Miss Harding has never been formally presented to society, but has been a popular member of the younger set in the Capital, where she has made her home for a little more than a year. She is considered one of the most beautiful girls in Washington. She came here with her father, one of the leading bankers of Alabama, when he was appointed a member of the Federal Reserve Board, and has presided in his home here as she did previously, a responsibility which has given her a poise very rare in one so young. She inherits much of her charm from her grandmother, who was a famous beauty in New Orleans. She is a great-granddaughter of Chester Harding and a niece of Col. Chester Harding, United States Corps of Engineers, now on duty in Panama.

Mr. Ellis is the only son of Mrs. Gist Blair, and is socially one of the most popular of the younger men in Washington. He is a Harvard graduate and a member of the Metropolitan and Chevy Chase Clubs. He was also a member of the Bachelors, an old and exclusive organization which for years gave the smartest balls of the winter, and which was disbanded three years ago. He is a native of Cincinnati and a grandson of the late Franklin H. Lawson, of that city. The wedding will take place in the spring.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces feverishness and itching of the scalp, the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scaggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advt.

AN INSTANCE OF DRECO'S POWER

"I was suffering severely from indigestion, loss of appetite, catarrh, a terrible depressed feeling around my heart, and could not sleep. After eating the slightest food gas would form in my stomach, causing me great uneasiness and pain, and there was a constant accumulation of mucus in my nose and throat. I was truly, in a deplorable state when my mother-in-law called my attention to the new medicine, Dreco, and advised me to get a bottle. I followed her advice, and am now as a consequence for having done so, in a position to advise others who are suffering as I was. Because, since taking Dreco I am troubled no more with indigestion, my appetite is splendid and nothing I eat troubles me in the least, there is no more formation of gas in my stomach, have noticed no more uneasiness around the heart, and all symptoms of catarrh have disappeared. The very fact of being relieved of that terrible discharge from my throat and nose alone, is suficient to justify me in recommending Dreco in the highest degree." This remarkable statement was made by Mrs. Mary Watson, ave. E, Ensleym, Ala. Dreco is sold exclusively in Washington by O'Donnell's Drug Stores. Mail orders filled promptly.—Advt.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN

are so often subject to headache—are languid, pale and nervous—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They are not really sick and hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. They do not need drugs—but do need the tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of concentrated nourishment, free from wines, alcohols or opiates.

If mother or daughter is frail, pale or nervous, give her Scott's for one month and see the betterment. It has a wholesome, "nutty" flavor. Avoid substitutes. At any drug store.
