COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.

Domestic Markets.

BOSTON, February 26.—There has been a fair business doing since our last. The favorable advices from Liverpool for Flour caused more firmness on the part of holders, but the trade purchase sparingly. Sales of 1,000 bbls Genesee at $5 25, and 500 bbls Western at $5 12½, in a jobbing way. Rye Flour is quoted at $3 12½@3 25. Corn Meal is held at $3 12½, and Brandywine at $3 25. Wheat—Sales of 1,000 bushels Western at 90c. Rye—Sales of 1,000 bushels at 75c. Corn—Sales of 2,000 bushels Southern at 60c, and 1,000 bushels Western at 61c. Oats—Sales of 1,000 bushels at 37½c. Pork—Sales of 100 bbls Prime at $14 50. Beef—Sales of 100 bbls Prime at $9 50. Lard—Sales of 100 bbls at 9½c. Cheese—Sales of 100 boxes at 8½@9c. Tallow—Sales of 100 bbls at 8½c.

PHILADELPHIA, February 26.—The market was dull on Saturday in all departments. No sales of Bagging and Rope. The upward tendency in Hemp has been checked by the opening of the Missouri river. On Saturday the first lot was received from Missouri. The highest price offered was $165 for Russian, and $160 for Manila. Flour—Sales about 400 bbls from store at $5 20@5 25, and some small lots at $5 12½. Wheat—Sales and delivered.....Over 200 bags Rio Coffee were sold—114 on 9½c, and the remainder at 9¾c, cash and 4 months. Sugar—Sugars and Molasses are unchanged.....Petroleum market quiet. Nothing done, but holders firm at previous rates.....The sales of Tobacco on Saturday were 40 hds at the prices, viz: 12 hds at 4 @ 4½; 14 hds at 5 @ 5½; 2 hds at 6; 3 hds at 6½@6¾; and 5 at 8@9½ c. and of new crop 22 hds—5 at 3½@4; 10 do. 4½@5; 1 do. at 5½; and 6 do. at 6½@8 c. Found the pipe to New Orleans.

MOBILE, March 5.....COTTON—The receipts since the 26th ult. Cotton, amounted to 24,426 bales, and the sales for the same period to 16,038 bales, viz: To Liverpool 10,850; Boston 698; Providence 528; Baltimore 481; and to New Orleans 1,531—leaving a stock on hand and coastwise not cleared of 104,000 bales, which we have reason to believe is the lowest for the last two days of the week under review was to a very far extent, and no doubt would have been larger had holders been prepared to accept the current rates. On Tuesday and Wednesday quite a large amount of sales were made, particularly on the latter day, at a shade higher prices, and on Thursday the closing market was decidedly more animated, and at higher prices. On the following day the market was dull, particularly for good Cotton, which was wanted, and being in comparatively small supply, holders were firm in their demands for extreme rates, were moderate, but at very full prices. On yesterday (Friday) our recipients of a special advice of an to-night or dates from Liverpool, announced the intelligence of the 17th ult. Cotton, continued with the very advanced prices noted by yesterday, brought our market to a stand, and for the last day being at night so to speak, nothing of notice—the market doing only at our quotations. Sales embrace the same marks previous to the arrival of the steamer.
