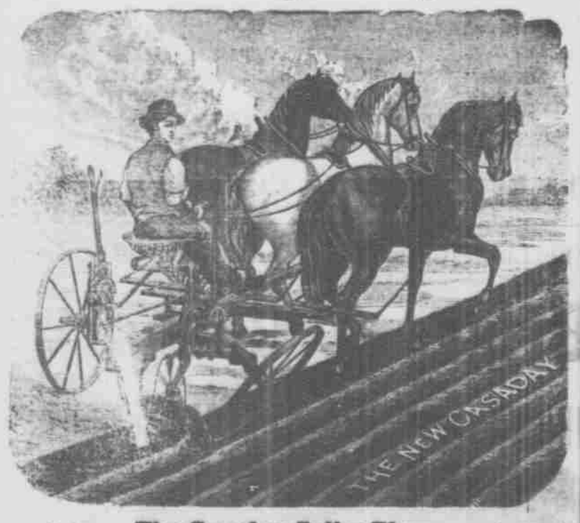
"FRESH from THE FIELDS of its GLORY"

The Casaday Sulky Plow



The Casaday Sulky Plow.

Ridiculed by other plow makers but indorsed by farmers everywhere.

30,000 sold in Kansas for the Spring trade of 1883.

Its success is beyond all parallel in the history of Riding Plows.

The only Plow without a landside.

Plows in uniform depth and width until changed by the operator.

Turn square corners without throwing the plow out of the ground.

Can be changed to suit the character of the work desired.

The entire weight carried on wheels.

Works splendidly in hard, dry or stony ground.

As a prairie breaker it has no successful competitor.

For ease of management and lightness of draft it cannot be excelled.

Opens a land and finishes a furrow to perfection.

Offered on its merits and guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it.

☞ Every Plow sold under a rigid warrant.
