Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 24.

PERSECUTION OF COLORED CONSERVATIVES. At a meeting of the official body of Rev. J. W. Dungee's church, last night, George P. Gray, one of the trustees, was appointed to procure a warrant for the arrest of a colored woman living near the church, who has made herself offensively conspicuous by her interruption of public worship there. She is a radical, and wants to break up this "rebel nigger" congregation.

Mr. Dungee has for ten years been laboring as a missionary of the Free Baptist Mission Society, of New England. The Society has allowed him $600 per annum for his services. He has recently received a letter from the treasurer, Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Concord, N. H., violently abusing him—calling the Richmond people rebels, denouncing Tilden as a Jeff. Davis man, and notifying Mr. Dungee that his salary will be cut off.

As an illustration of the opposition to Mr. Dungee's course, it may be stated that his Sunday-school, which a few months ago numbered 200, has now been reduced to 40 scholars through the machinations of his political enemies. During his recent visit to Martinsburg and Winchester the radical negroes threatened to mob him, and trouble would have occurred, no doubt, but for timely movements of the whites.—Richmond Dispatch
