Important Postage Notice.—POST OFFICE, NEW YORK, March 31, 1855.—From and after THIS DAY, in pursuance of the Act of Congress, passed March 3, 1855 no letters will be sent from this office in the mails, addressed to places within the United States unless the postage is prepaid.

In order more effectually to carry out the provisions of the said Act, and the instructions of the Post-Office Department in relation thereto, the drop-boxes at this office for the reception of letters will be closed from and after this day, until the practice of prepayment becomes general. Letters, whether prepaid by stamps or prepaid by money, will be received at all the windows; but, to prevent the detention at the delivery windows of persons dealing only to deposit letters prepaid by stamps, a window on the Nassau-st side of the Post-Office, the one nearest to Cedar-st., will be appropriated exclusively to the reception of letters prepaid by stamps. Under no circumstances will any other business be transacted at this window.

Persons mailing letters will facilitate their own action as well as the business of this office, by using stamps or stamped envelopes, for the payment of postage. Stamps can be purchased in any quantity, and envelopes in packages, between the hours of nine A. M. and three P M., at the office of sale, in the second story of the Post-Office building, entrance at the east end of the Cedar-st. front

Letters addressed to places within the United States, not prepaid, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

To facilitate the mailing of letters for places beyond the limits of the United States, a window at the foot of the stairs, at the east end of the Cedar-st front, will be set apart for the exclusive reception of unpaid foreign letters, which will be received at no other place, and of letters for California and Oregon, prepaid by stamps. Foreign letters can be prepaid at any of the windows for the delivery of letters

The postage on letters between places in the United States, will be three, be, for a single rate (half an ounce and under,) three cents; and for any greater distance, which includes all letters to California and Oregon, ten cents.
ISAAC V. FOWLER, Postmaster.

DR. TYNG'S NEW BOOK. THE RICH KINSMAN; THE HISTORY OF RUTH THE MOABITESS. By Stephen H. Tyng, D D.
"In a series of nineteen Lectures, the author has amplified and illustrated one of the most attractive narratives which has ever been penned. His forte lies in this very style of scriptural illustration, and we need not say that he has succeeded in eliciting and presenting in a very attractive manner, the important lessons taught by this portion of Scripture. As the Lectures were written and delivered with a particular view to the instruction of the younger members of his flock, it is to be hoped that they will find many readers among that interesting class elsewhere" [Presbyterian
"The Rich Kinsman is the title of a neat volume of lectures on the Book of Ruth, by the Rev. Dr Tyng. The lectures were designed for the instruction of the young and those aspects of piety, gentleness fidelity and blessing which pertained to the Moabites are specially dwelt upon in the light of examples for youthful admiration and imitation. The earnest feeling, direct address, and clear thought which distinguish Dr. Tyng's pulpit efforts, are here finely displayed. It is an attractive work as to its subject, and suggestive and forcible in respect to its treatment." [Evangelist.

II.
SAME DAY, a charming volume, by William Howitt
A BOY'S ADVENTURES IN THE WILDS OF AUSTRALIA; or, HERBERT'S NOTE BOOK. Beautifully Illustrated. 1 vol 16mo., 75 cents.
"All boys, whether 'old boys' or young ones, will rejoice in this fascinating book, full of anecdote and wild adventure; sober as we are and little given to room, it has inspired us with a strong desire to take a journey in the bush, if we could see the end of it. The descriptions of the scenery, the trees and the animals are extremely spirited and graphic—they have all the appearance of being written on the spot, and are redolent of the fresh open air. We have very seldom read a book of travels that has charmed us so much, and we shall consider the young folks extremely fortunate who are lucky enough to own it." [London Athenæum.
