MEDICINAL.

DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT.

IN 25 CTS. AND $1 BOTTLES.

Its properties are Demulcent, Nutritive, Balsamic, Soothing and Healing. Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective LUNG BALSAM ever offered to sufferers from pulmonary diseases.

Dr. J. F. HAYWOOD, of New York, voluntarily indorses it. Read what he says:

New York, Sept. 19, 1877.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine hundred cases of lung diseases in the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was turned to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medicine act so promptly and with such happy effect. It instantly subdued the most violent coughing, and invariably cured the diseases in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as the best cough medicine I ever used.

J. FRANCIS HAYWOOD, M.D.

A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER WRITES

Office Evening News, Augusta, Ga.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—My little son was attacked with pneumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough that lasted till within a month since, for the cure of which I am indebted to your valuable Expectorant. I had tried most everything recommended, but none did any good until I used your Expectorant, one bottle of which removed the cough entirely. With many thanks, I am yours truly,

JOHN M. WEIGLE.

HAD TERRIBLE NIGHT SWEATS.

Memphis, February 11, 1871.

Dr. Tutt: Sir—I have been suffering for nearly two years with a severe cough. When I commenced taking your Expectorant I was reduced to one hundred and sixteen pounds in weight. I had tried almost everything; had terrible night sweats. I have taken half dozen bottles. The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen pounds in flesh. I recommend it to all my friends. With great respect,

OLIVER RICE.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you subject to raise the phlegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a tickling cough on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in a region of the heart, shoulders and back? IF SO, OUR ADVICE IS to take a home-dose of Tutt's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour after the Expectorant, place a hot iron to the feet take two of Tutt's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning cough gone, lungs working freely; easy breathing and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days.

A Gem of Poetry.

The following poem was written by General Edwin G. Lee, of Virginia, and published in the Southern Metropolis, a weekly paper issued at Baltimore during the years 1869 and 1870. As the Metropolis is long since dead, and the poem, which I cannot but regard as an exquisite gem, is entombed in the perished paper, I have copied the lines and enclose them to you. Their republication will be almost equivalent to a first appearance. I have read Thackeray's poem on the mocking bird, and several other effusions by men of note on the famous Southern songster. I regard these lines of Gen. Lee as the most beautiful of them all. Poor fellow! He wrote them during a voyage to Florida in October, 1869, when he was stricken by consumption, and had gone to the Everglades in quest of that health which he never got. Within a year or two after he died. He was related to the great Confederate chieftain, Gen. R. E. Lee, and among the members of a gifted family, who for generations in Virginia have been remarkable for their talents, Gen. E. G. Lee was a conspicuous ornament. I think his name should be known and honored, and all who read this little gem of his will no doubt agree with me:

TO A MOCKING BIRD.

By E. G. Lee.

Hast ever heard the skylark's deathless note,
As with ambitious wing,
And more ambitious song, he seemed to float
Almost where angels sing?
As though he sought to steal some heavenly strain
To fill the measure of his own refrain?

Hest thou had teaching from the nightingale,
Hymning the list'ning moon?
Or sly covert in some secret vale,
Conned o'er the thrush's tune?
And caught the rich, full throated gush he flings
Into the orchestra that April brings?

To learn the bul-bul's notes o'er Persia's sands
Hast thou unwearied flown
Or snatched thee from the fair Australian strands,
The bell bird's vibrate tone,
That too can't blend its lingering silver thrill
With parodies of jay and whipperwill?

Do orioles from verdant Chesapeake,
And crested cardinal,
With linnets from the Severn, come to seek,
Obedient to thy call?
If they can give thee one new music thought,
Who ev'ry note from ev'ry land has caught?

Or hast thou been where music fountains start,
'Neath mystic, mythic skies?
And drank too deeply, that from thy heart
Such glorious melodies,
Leap gushing—surging—in tumultuous throng
Until the quivering tree top drips with song?

Methinks the rarest choirs of fairyland
Attuned each choicest cord;
Then sent the master songsters from each land,
And bade them teach thee, bird!
Who, having taught, bewildered gathered round
And marveled where such wonderous song was found.

God bless the Southland bird! God bless thy lay;
Like music in a dream,
It floats from old Potomac's cliffs away
To Colorado's stream;
From where Virginia's mountain torrents roar,
To where the warm Gulf laps the Texas shore;

Where Creole maids their loved and lost ones weep
Among the cypress glades;
Or Carolina's blue eyed daughters keep,
Beneath magnolia's shades
The darling graves where rest their darling dead
And lay camelias o'er the sleeper's head!

And everywhere thy joyous medleys ring,
The weary mourners smile,
And saddest hearts grow bright to hear thee sing
Sweet music—king, the while
They breathe, "God bless thee," thou that dost belong
To us, O bird of universal song!

NOTICE.—Section 17, chapter V., of the Corporation laws, has been re-enacted and amended, as follows, and all interested will please take notice that the law will be rigidly enforced:

Section 17. Any companies or individuals who may make use of any street, highway, or sidewalk in the city of Alexandria, for the purpose of laying down therein, or removing the main pipes or branches connected therewith, used for the transmission and distribution of gas and water, shall cause the openings thus made in the street, highway, or sidewalk to be filled up, rammed and properly paved within 48 hours after the work has been commenced; provided, however, that should said companies or individuals be prevented from completing the aforesaid work in the aforesaid time, by the occurrence of rain, they shall be allowed 24 hours for the purpose after the rain shall have ceased. And due notice shall be given to the Superintendent of Police, in writing, who shall make a record of it in a book he shall keep for that purpose, of the intention of any company or individual to open said street, highway, or sidewalk for the purposes hereinbefore named.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, to be collected according to law.

GEO. W. CLIFFORD,
feb25-ec3tif Superintendent of Police.

MEDICINAL.

GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE AMMONIA

CURES ALL PAIN IN MAN AND BEAST. Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia cures Neuralgia, Face Ache, Rheumatism, Gout, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Sore Throat, Erysipelas, Bruises and Wounds of every nature in man and animal. The remarkable cures this remedy has effected classes it as one of the most important and valuable remedies ever discovered for the cure or relief of pain.

I had twelve strokes of paralysis. My leg, tongue and arm were useless; was obliged to use a catheter every day. Dr. Giles' Liniment Iodide of Ammonia has cured me. Will answer any inquiries so that all afflicted may know of it.—John Appell, North Bradford, Conn.

My wife suffered with prolapsus uteri, fluor albus, complicated with other female troubles. Her life was miserable. Rev. Guy S. Frazey, of the Methodist Church, advised me to try Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia and Pills, he telling me of the wonders it had performed on his wife, who was a martyr to such troubles, and is now well. I obtained the Liniment and Pills, and my wife is cured. Charles R. Jones, Editor Observer, Charlotte, N. C.

Write to Dr. Giles, at 120 West Broadway, New York, who cures all female troubles without pay.

Read the following: Salt Rheum cured. I had Salt Rheum on my hand for two years: I tried every doctor I could hear of. The salves, ointments and soaps without number; nothing benefitted me. A 50c bottle of Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia cured me in less than a week.—A. Romaine, 101 West Thirty-second st. N. Y.

Habitual Costiveness, the cause of so many troubles, Lowness of Spirits, Dizziness of the Head, Loss of Memory, Indigestion, Flatulence, Heating of the Heart, Nervousness, all these are cured by Giles' Improved Mandrake Pills.

Giles' Liniment and Pills are sold by all Druggists throughout the world. Trial bottles 25c, Pills 25c.

Beware of counterfeits; the genuine has a fac-simile of the inventor's signature, William M. Giles, over the cork of each bottle.

The Liniment in white wrappers is for family use, the in yellow wrapper is for the stable.

It is the only Liniment that possesses alterative properties and can be taken internally. Quart bottles at $2 50, in which there is a great saving. dec8

$20 FISH GUANO, $20
PER TON OF 2000 LBS.

I am now prepared to furnish the above valuable fertilizer at the low price of $20 per ton of 2000 lbs, delivered on cars or boats. It is in its crude state, and farmers in want had better order early, so they can prepare it for fall seeding. There is nothing in this guano but the pure fish with the oil extracted (which is said by all chemists to be no fertilizer.) I can refer to those I sold it to last spring, most of whom have already sent in their orders for more to use on their wheat.
