THIRTY MILLIONS LOCKED IN A TOWER — It has always been believed that one of the great disappointments of Bismarck's life was the ease with which the French paid off the immense indemnity exacted from them at the conclusion of the Franco-German war. About thirty millions of dollars still remain on the Chancellor's hands, for which the government gets no interest whatever. This sum is locked up in the Julius Tower of the fortress of Spandau, in the charge of the governor of that castle. To two members of the Imperial National Debt Commission is annually assigned the onerous task of counting this mass of coined gold. Each of them has a key to the door of the tower, which can be opened only by turning the keys simultaneously. The treasure is in 1,200 canvas bags, each containing $25,000 worth of gold. A section of the Prussian Guard is told off to assist in verifying the contents of these bags. Had this money been securely invested at five per cent. when it was paid, it would now have amounted to nearly forty millions of dollars.

MAJOR DANIEL IN RAPPAHANNOCK — The Blue Ridge Echo in its notice of the recent visit of Major Daniel to that county, an account of which has appeared in the Gazette, says:

"Our old fathers were out and testified by their presence the importance of our cause. Old men verging upon the grave, bowed down with age, with tottering footsteps, faltering voice, but with true and manly spirits for love of God, country and freedom—men who we never saw before at political meetings and men who have lived in the better past and heard the eloquence of Clay, of Calhoun, and Crittenden, pronounce that Daniel's effort was the most magnificent combination of fact, reason and oratory they had ever heard. When the speaking was over Daniel stepped from the rostrum and was surrounded by ladies who encouraged him with God's speed, and gentlemen from whom deep, heartfelt utterances of God bless you Daniel, which utterances showed the grandeur of the splendid speech and principles the speaker advocated.

Macon, Ga., March 31, 1879

From having been intimate with the proprietors of "Swift's Syphilitic Specific," I have known much of its manufacture and use. There are men in this community who were victims in early life to Syphilis, and who have taken the S. S. S. medicine, and are now, to all appearances and in their own belief, as free from taint of disease as the first man, fresh from the hands of his Maker. Delicacy forbids their public recommendations, but I am allowed to refer the skeptic privately to those who will endorse everything that can be said in its favor. Being professionally much opposed to recommending secret remedies, it is with hesitation I attach my name to this article; but I know whereof I speak when I say our science has not made public a combination equal to "Swift's Syphilitic Specific" for the purpose indicated

AUCTION SALES.

PUBLIC SALE

OF THE

WASHINGTON & OHIO R. R.

Under authority of a decree of the Circuit Court of Richmond city, rendered April 23, 1880, in the suit of Henry Lewis et als. vs. the W. & O. R. R. Company et als., and affirmed by the Court of Appeals of Virginia at its September term, 1881, the undersigned, special Commissioners, will, at 12 o'clock m., on the 31st day of January, 1882,

at the railroad depot of the Washington and Ohio Railroad Company, in the city of Alexandria, Va., offer at public auction the including that partly and that wholly constructed, and also all and singular all the works and property, real, personal and mixed, rolling stock, locomotives, cars, &c., and all rights, contracts and franchises of said Washington and Ohio Railroad Company.

The said property consists of a constructed line of railway in active operation from the city of Alexandria, Va., westward through the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax and Loudoun to Round Hill station, in Loudoun county, a distance of 51½ miles, including a line connecting with the Washington and Alexandria Railroad. The road is also graded beyond Round Hill for a distance of three miles.

The other real property of the company consists of a large brick depot building and freight house, in the city of Alexandria, a round house, machine shop, car shop, car shed, store house, &c., and about fifteen acres of land adjacent thereto; also eleven depot houses and lots at the eleven principal stations between Alexandria and Round Hill.

According to the route surveyed the distance from Washington city to Point Pleasant, on the Ohio river, is three hundred and twenty-five miles, and passes through a country heavily timbered and of great mineral resources.

Terms: The entire property, real, personal and mixed, franchises, &c., is sold together, and for the same the purchaser must pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) of the purchase money in cash, and the residue in four equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, which said payments are to be evidenced by bonds which are to be secured by a deed of trust upon the property sold, to be executed upon the confirmation of the sale and conveyance to the purchaser.

This sale is subject to the lien of the deed of trust executed August 6th, 1858 to indemnify the county of Clarke State of Virginia, against liability for the annual interest on the bonds of the said county for the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) "up to and until the time when said road shall be commenced, and under construction in said county of Clarke;" and against liability for the payments of the principal of said bonds in case they shall become due and payable before the road shall be commenced and under construction in said county, the said bonds falling due in the year 1892.

The purchaser will be entitled to the net profits of the road from the day of sale.

SALE OF A LARGE AND VALUABLE PROPERTY IN FAIRFAX CO., VA.—By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Alexandria city, Virginia, rendered on the 27th day of May, 1881, in the chancery causes of Fairfax vs. Thornton et al. and Washington City Savings Bank and others against Weems, administrator and others, the undersigned, commissioners, by the said decree thereto authorized, will proceed, on the EIGHTEENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1881, at 12 o'clock m., to sell by public auction, in front of the Market building, on Fairfax street, in the said city of Alexandria, Va., a TRACT OF LAND, in Fairfax county, Va., containing six thousand four hundred and forty-five (6,445) acres, in the bill and proceedings mentioned, being the residue of the original purchase by Thornton, from Fairfax, remaining unsold. The Washington and Ohio Railroad is located through the tract, which is about twenty miles from the cities of Alexandria and Washington.

This property is now subdivided into seventeen (17) different parcels or lots designated on the plats, respectively, as lots No 1, containing 117¾ acres, more or less; No 2, 132¼ acres; No 3, 89¼ acres; No 4, 197¼ acres; No 5, 124¼ acres; No 6, 138¼ acres; No 7, 62¼ acres; No 8, 118¾ acres; No 9, 96¼ acres; No 10, 39¼ acres; No 11, 295¼ acres; No 12, 171¼ acres; No 13, 241 acres; No 14, 383 acres; No 15 102¾ acres; No 16, 211¼ acres; No 17, 177 acres

The said tract will be offered for sale as a whole, or in lots as above, according to the metes and bounds thereof laid down in said plat or certain lots may be sold together, or the larger lots may be further subdivided on the day of sale, in the discretion of the commissioners, to suit purchasers. A plot of the property will be exhibited on the day of sale, and can be inspected any time before said sale, at the law offices of Kent & Neale, in the city of Alexandria, Va.

The property is within an hour's ride of the city of Washington, a station on the premises, and two trains a day each way, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. It is well watered, much of it adapted to agriculture, while other portions are valuable for its timber. There is a substantial mansion house on the premises, and good many smaller houses, occupied by laborers and tenants.

Terms of Sale: Sufficient of the purchase money in cash to pay the costs and expenses of suit and sale, say ten per cent, and the residue thereof, to be payable in equal instalments, at one, two and three years, respectively, from day of sale, with interest, to be evidenced by the bonds of the purchaser or purchasers, with good personal security, the commissioners to retain the title to said land until the purchaser shall have paid all of the purchase money. LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA: Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria, October 27, 1881.

James F. Carlin, complainant, vs. Alex. Hunter et als., defts } In chancery.

Whereas James F. Carlin heretofore exhibited to our Circuit of the city of Alexandria his bill of complaint against Alexander Hunter and others, whereupon sundry proceedings have been had, as appears from the records and files of said Court; but before a final decree could be pronounced in the cause James A. Garfield, who had become a party defendant to said suit, departed this life, leaving Harry A. Garfield, James R. Garfield, Mollie Garfield, Irwin McD Garfield and Abram Garfield, his heirs at law and Lucretia R Garfield, his widow, him surviving; and the said James F. Carlin having supplicated us for a proper remedy in this behalf and we being willing that what is right and just should be done; and it appearing by affidavit that the said Harry A. Garfield, James R. Garfield, Mollie Garfield, Irvin McD. Garfield, Abram Garfield and Lucretia R Garfield are not residents of this State, it is ordered that they appear here within one month after due publication of this order to show if anything for themselves they have or know to say why the said suit should not be proceeded in to a final decree, and be in all things in the same plight and condition as it was at the time of the decease of the said James A. Garfield, and further to do and receive what our said Court shall in that part consider. A copy—test:
