Chicago Grain and Produce.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec 16.—A fair speculative business was transacted in wheat and the feeling was a little unsettled, though fluctuations in prices were again confined within rather narrow limits. The close was about ⅛c lower for December and January, and ⅛c easier for May than Saturday.

There were no special features to the corn market. It opened at yesterday's closing prices, was firm for a time, selling up ⅛c, eased off a little, ruled quiet and closed lower than Saturday.

Oats were dull and steady.

Pork trading was moderately active and the feeling was rather unsettled and prices irregular within a small range.

In lard a little more business was transacted and prices were irregular.

Ribs trading was more active with prices favoring buyers.

ATTORNEYS' POCKET DOCKETS,
Can be Used in Any State and in Any Court.

The most complete and convenient Pocket Docket ever published, with two indexes—an alphabetical index and a diary index; shows at a glance just what date a lawyer has a case in court; keeps a complete record of the case. Handsomely bound in flexible back, a convenient size to carry in the pocket. Endorsed by attorneys everywhere. The following are a few of the many testimonials:

The following strong endorsement from Capt. John E. Ash, ex-judge of the 30th Judicial District, state of Indiana. He writes as follows:

WICHITA, Kans., Oct. 26, 1889.

It is the most complete and concise work of the sort I have ever met with. I cannot see how the systematic, practicing lawyer can do without it. It should be entitled "The Lawyer's Vade Mecum."
Truly and sincerely Yours,
JOHN H. ASH, Att'y at Law.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Aug. 10, '89.
The Attorneys' Pocket Docket was received all right and will say that it is the most complete and convenient article that a lawyer can have in his office to facilitate business. It is just what every lawyer needs that has any business in court.
Yours, etc., N. N. WITTIN

EL DORADO, Kan., Sept. 25'-89.
R. P. Murdock,
Sir: I am in receipt of the attorney Pocket Docket. I have been using one of your dockets for some time but I consider this one with its alphabetical and diary index and its general arrangement better than any other which has come to my notice. Yours, E. H. HUTCHINS, Co. Att'y, Butler Co.

PRESCOTT, Arizona, Feb. 18, 1889.
Dear Sir—We received the "Attorney's Pocket Docket," and are more than plensed with it. It is convenient, well arranged and complete in every way. Yours truly,
HERNDON & HAWKINS.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Sept. 14, 1889.
Gents—We have examined one of your "Attorneys' Pocket Dockets," and find it one of the most complete of any we have seen. Please send us one by return mail. We are yours truly,
SHEPARD, GROVE & SHEPARD.

FULTON, Kan., March 9, 1889.
Dear Sir: Enclosed postal note for $1.07 in payment for "Attorney's Docket." Am well pleased with same, as it is the handiest and at the same time, concise and comprehensive pocket docket I have seen. The Diary Index and Alphabetical index are valuable features.
Respectfully,
E. C. GATES, Attorney at Law.

COTTONWOOD FALLS, Sept. 20, 1889.
Dear Sir—I would not do without your "Attorney's Pocket Docket" for double the price of it. I think every attorney should have one as they can turn to it in a moment and get a full history of every case that they are interested in.
Respectfully,
GEORGE M. HAYDEN,
Attorney at law and clerk district court Chase county.

Price of Docket $1.00. By mail postpaid to any address upon receipt of $1.07.
