VOL. XVI.....No. 4,767. NEW-YORK, WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1856. PRICE TWO CENTS.

At a Meeting held on board of Steamer State of Maine, on Monday, July 28, by the Officers of the Steamer EMPIRE STATE, the following resolutions were offered by L. V. TILTON:

Resolved, That in the death of our late associate, EYRE WILLIAMSON the officers of the Steamer Empire State have lost an esteemed friend and companion—one who, by his many noble traits of character, his diligence and attention to his duties as an officer, have endeared him to our hearts by ties which the lapse of time cannot sever.

Resolved, That the bereaved family of our late brother officer are deeply entitled to our heartfelt sympathies; and while we bow in humiliation to the mandate of Him "who rules our destinies and shapes our ends," we feel, with the widow and the orphan, that we have sustained a great loss.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for ten days, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our lamented associate.

"THE MODERN WHITFIELD"—WHOSE AUDIENCES AT TIMES HAVE BEEN 12,000 PERSONS,
And who has caused all England to blaze with excitement.
Will be Published August 1:
THE REV. C. H. SPURGEON,
OF LONDON.
His Sermons, with an Introduction and Sketch of his Life,
BY THE REV. E. L. MAGOON, D. D.
With a fine Lithograph Portrait.

Orders from the trade solicited, and should be sent early, as the prospect is that a demand will be made for the book that can not at first be supplied promptly.
"Never, since the days of George Whitfield and Edward Irving, has any minister of religion acquired so great a reputation as this preacher in so short a time. There is no man in Great Britain who can draw such immense audiences; and none who, in his happiest efforts, can so completely enthrall the attention and delight the minds of his hearers."
[Corresp. ndent of the Independent.
"What the Jenny Lind furore was in the musical world, the Spurgeon mania seems to be the Calvinistic one; for wherever the young declamatist goes, people crush to hear him with a sufficating, elbowing, almost fighting vehemence amusing enough if you be sufficiently high to overlook the crowd; but very choking and alarming if you should yourself be in the midst of the melee. The latter was my case on Tuesday evening last, and I write with ribs sore and wrists sprained in my efforts to reach Broadmead Rooms, but only too thankful that I ever got out with my life."
[Bristol (England) Paper.
"He is rated by his adherents above Fox or Whitfield. Conversions and baptisms are frequent and numerous. Exeter Hall will not contain the multitude who seek to catch the sound of his voice." [New-Yorker.
