A CAMPAIGN TRACT.—CATHOLICS, ATTENTION! Hear what Pope Gregory says about the Slave-Trade and those who deal in slaves. Hear his anathemas denounced on all those who in any way countenance SLAVERY! including, of course, those who, by voting for Buchanan or Fillmore, upheld the infamous traffic. READ POPE GREGORY'S BULL. THE CATHOLIC CLERGY in America, entirely ignoring or losing sight of the above document, issued only a few years ago, it remains for Protestants to publish the same for the benefit of ALL TRUE CATHOLICS, none of whom would care to vote for BUCHANAN OR FILLMORE after reading this Proclamation of His Holiness. They would rather vote for JOHN C. FREMONT, who is pledged to prostrate "THE SLAVE OLIGARCHY!" and to extend the area of Freedom. FREMONT AND DAYTON CLUBS can be supplied with the above Bull, illustrated by a handsome cut of the Pope, surrounded by his Cardinals, engaged in the work of freeing a slave from his chains, in addition to other suitable matter, such as DANIEL O'CONNELL'S views on Slavery; also those of other CELEBRATED IRISHMEN, together with a Map showing up, in suitable colors, the Free and Slave States of the Union; all published together in an eight page tract, which should be scattered broadcast among American Catholics; it is a knockdown argument, and must have a telling effect on that class of voters. Will be ready on the 10th of September. Thousands of copies have been already ordered. Send early. Price per 1,000, $10; per 100, $1 25, or 2 cents single. Each order must be accompanied by the cash. Address the publisher. JOSEPH H. LADD, No. 22 Beekman-st., New-York.

SUSAN MERTON, On WEDNESDAY, Sept. 10, CHARLES READE'S NEW NOVEL: "IT IS NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND." A MATTER OF FACT ROMANCE. Two Volumes. Uniform with "Peg Wafflington" and "Christie Johnstone." Price.....$1 75. The title of this Romance, originally announced as "Susan Merton," was changed by the author while the work was in press to the name it now bears. "Few, we apprehend, will be inclined to dispute our assertion, that this is the most vigorous and various novel which has till now appeared this year. Events, pictures, and emotions succeed each other with as much power as rapidity. In this tale Mr. Reade shows himself as powerful and forcible as Dumas in 'Monte Christo,' and as triumphant in carrying us along with him. It deserves, and we think it will have, readers by the thousands, because it is not merely a work of talent and artifice, but because something of earnest conviction and something of genius has gone to its production." [London Athenæum. Will be published by TICKNOR & FIELDS, BOSTON. And for sale by all Booksellers in the United States.
