We, the undersigned citizens, respectfully request you to become a candidate for Sheriff, independent of any party nomination. Knowing that you have filled the office of Sheriff with great ability, and believing the interests of the county, and of law and order, will be better conserved by your continuance in the office than by the election of any other person at this time, we promise that in the event of your compliance with the request herein made, we will give to you our support in the canvass and our votes at the election in November next.

HIS RESPONSE TO THE "CALL."

To Col. John Wood, H. Watson Webb, R. H. Cunningham, D. T. Linegar, J. H. Mulcahey, P. Saup, R. A. Edmundson, and others:

GENTLEMEN:—Accepting the "Call," signed by you and more than eight hundred other voters of Alexander county, as an endorsement of my official conduct as sheriff, and as the expression of an honest desire that I should stand for re-election, I feel impelled to give you an affirmative answer.

It has been my aim, during my term of service, to perform my duty as I was enabled to see my duty; and if in any thing I failed, I beg to assure you that the head was at fault and not the heart.

In consenting, as I do, to become a candidate for re-election, I feel called upon to make no promises of more efficient service than I have hitherto rendered. I can only assure you that, if elected, I will (as I always did) strive to do my duty faithfully and fearlessly, regardless of all consequences personal to myself.

Thanking you, and those who joined you in the "call," for the flattering expression of confidence you have given, and for your promise of generous support, permit me to subscribe myself.

Yours truly,
ALEX. H. IRVIN.

CENTAR LINAMENT.
The great discovery of the age. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling which it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. It is no humbug; the recipe is printed around each bottle. A circular containing certificates of wonderful cures of rheumatism neuralgia, lock-jaw, sprains, swellings, scalds, caked breasts, poisonous bite frozen feet, gout, saltrheum, ear-ache &c., and the recipe of the Liniment will be sent gratis to anyone. It is the most wonderful healing and pain relieving agent the world has ever produced. It sells as no article before did sell, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. One bottle of the Centaur Liniment for animals (yellow wrapper) is worth a hundred dollars for spavined, strained or galled horses and mules, and for crew-worm in sheep. No family or stock-owner can afford to be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50 cents; large bottles $1. J. B. Rose & Co., 53 Broadway, New.

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only SAFE article in existence which is sure to regulate the bowels, cure windcolic and produce natural sleep. It is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may sleep. 10-7 w1y

Newspaper advertising promotes trade, for even the dullest times advertisers secure by far the largest share of what is being done.

Newspaper advertising is a permanent addition to the reputation of the goods advertised, because it is a permanent influence always at work in their interest.

Newspaper advertising is now recognized, by all, as the most effective means for securing for their goods a wide recognition of their merits.

Newspaper advertising is the most energetic and vigilant of salesmen; addressing thousands each day, always in the advertiser's interest, and ceaselessly at work seeking customers from all classes.

Newspaper advertising impels inquiry, and when the article offered is of good quality, and at a fair price, the natural result is increased sales
