MISS MARIA J. McINTOSH.—We have in press and shall publish, about the 25th of November, a most Fascinating and Brilliant Romance, entitled

VIOLET;
OR, THE CROSS AND THE CROWN,

From the elegant pen of the above talented and accomplished authoress—a writer too well known to fame to require any laudatory introduction by us to the reading community.

Distinguished literary critics who have read the entire manuscript concur in pronouncing it far superior to any of her previous literary efforts—a work which would alone confer upon any writer high and enduring fame.

Her theme was most happily chosen, opening with a graphic and thrilling description of a wrecking scene on the coast of New-Jersey, in which all on shipboard were lost, save a sweet babe, found by the wreckers, tied into its berth, probably by a fond mother's own hands, as the last and only hope of saving its life; the adoption of this child by the rough and semi-savage wreckers, and the extraordinary and eventful life which she lived for many years, forms a tale which for thrilling interest, has rarely been equaled, even by the genius of Irving or Cooper.

It will be comprised in one elegant 12mo. volume, or about 450 pages, price $1, with our usual discount to the trade.

As the sale of this book will undoubtedly be very large, Booksellers are most respectfully requested to forward us their orders at an early date, so that we may be enabled to fill them, in full, from the first edition, without disappointment or delay.
