MISCELLANEOUS.

ST. NICHOLAS EXCHANGE.—The proprietor of the "St. Nicholas" would inform his friends and the public generally that he has, during the summer, entirely refitted and refurnished the above popular place of resort; that the bar has been recently replenished with the choicest liquors and cigars; that the table is now supplied with the best the market affords, and that no pains will be spared to render his guests comfortable.
THOMAS E. NICHOLS, Proprietor.

ST. CHARLES BILLIARD ROOM, Under the ST. CHARLES HOTEL. The large, airy and commodious rooms under the St. Charles Hotel, known as the BILLIARD ROOM, have been, during the past summer, entirely refitted and the TABLES, which are of the best manufacture, have been recently renovated.
The proprietor has been spared to render this popular and central place of amusement worthy of his past patronage.
A. W. MERRIAM.

BILLIARDS!!—BILLIARDS!!!—Over the BELLE HOUSE, Gravier street, between Carondelet and St. Charles streets, opposite the St. Charles Hotel.—The undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has fitted up the above saloon, with every thing appertaining to a good BILLIARD SALOON, having nine entirely new BILLIARD TABLES, some having marble beds, which guarantees a fair game. The CUISINE will be found to be a great improvement. Polite attendants will wait on the patrons, and the proprietor will be constantly in the room, to see that everything possible is made as comfortable as possible.
M. M. MILLER.
