DAILY CRESCENT.

THE LEGEND OF HEINE VON STEIN.

Out from the dark with fond
Rode the terrible Heinze Von Stein,
He pounded on the door of a tavern,
And cried out the astounding news:
"There has at Hainsel down in a corner,
Appeared, for the sake of a drink of wine,
Up came with a flash and a such-crow,
A creature strangely divine!

"There he sat with a deep love longing,
And said, "O, my goddess, come
Pledge me in a few kisses
To Heinze Von Stein."

Then spoke the host, "The thing business
Is not quite in my line,
But I'll shout as loud as I can
Hi! Ho! Come out, ugly as thine."

When the knight was exceeding angry,
Also he cursed, both sound and fine!
And he asked how what was the swindle,
For love come by wine!

And hasty he rode to his castle,
And sat himself down to dine,
And this is the fearful legend
Of the terrible Heinz Von Stein.

GROWTH FROM THE TIME OF DISCOVERY.—If you sit near the door of an omnibus, assist the ladies in and out, when you wish to be mistaken for a brute; make a bow to your tailor when you do unless you are unpleasantly long takes for a pickpocket.

It is a delicate question which commands a walking gentlemen respect, the man who bullies his own sex, or fear him the best.

If an acquaintance vows that if you wish she will serve you, you have only to ask him, ask him at once; it is your best opportunity.

Don't assume any one of being a humbug before you are certain that you are not a humbug yourself in accusing him.

If you happen unfortunately to have a pair of wicked boots on, look every one full in the face.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE used at the last moment with success.
WASHINGTON COUNTY, Pa., November, 1852.
A neighbor of mine had a child that was very sick, and the Physician attending it averred all his skill for its recovery, but without avail. They sent to Canonsburg for Dr. L., who came over to our place, and upon examining the child, said it was not in his power to do anything, it had done, but could do nothing more for it. The child was given up. Dr. L. then said that there could be no harm in trying FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE, and thought they had better get some. They sent to my store, and procured some. After administering the first bottle, according to the printed directions, the child passed a few worms. They then gave it about half of another bottle, when it passed between TWO AND THREE HUNDRED WORMS, and immediately after commenced improving, and was completely restored to health.

WINER'S CANADIAN VERMIFUGE A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR WORMS.

IT IS A FACT, established beyond the shadow of doubt, by the experience and testimony of the most eminent physicians, more than three-fourths of the diseases with which children are afflicted are caused by the presence of worms in the system, principally from those diseases, when the cause is either not known or wrongly fixed to some other cause, is the reason why preparations which have been recommended as remedies for Worms, but experience has proved them all more or less ineffectual; the end however has at length been attained, and a remedy found which has never failed to destroy Worms, wherever they have existed. This assertion is supported by the testimony of the most eminent physicians and respectable individuals in the country. The remedy is

WINER'S CANADIAN VERMIFUGE, WARRANTED PURELY VEGETABLE.

It is safe in its operation, and may safely administered than any other. Some of the symptoms which indicate the presence of the Worms are as follows: the countenance is pale, of a sallow color, and afflicted with occasional flushes; the eyes are heavy and dull, the breath fetid, the upper lip swollen, itching in the nostrils, which causes the patient to pick his nose; the sleep is disturbed, the patient often awakens in a fright, and cries out; the tongue is furred and grinding the teeth; the appetite exceedingly irregular, being sometimes voracious, and at others it is entirely lost; in some instances it is depraved.

To the following certificates not a single doubt can be added, but it is believed that these are sufficient to establish the fact that WINER'S CANADIAN VERMIFUGE IS A SUPERIOR REMEDY FOR WORMS.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE.

We, the undersigned, having frequently administered a medicine prepared by Mr. C. M. Winer, of this town, designated J. WINER'S CANADIAN VERMIFUGE, in cases of Worms, do hereby certify, that we confidently recommend it as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of Worms from the intestinal canal.
