SALE of VALUABLE LEASEHOLD PROPERTY.—By virtue of the last will and testament of PETER McLOUGHLIN, late of the city of New-York, deceased, and pursuant to the judgment of the Supreme Court, the undersigned will, on the nineteenth day of June next, at 12 o'clock, noon, at the Merchants' Exchange in said city, by ANTHONY J. BLEECKER, Auctioneer, sell the following described leasehold property, to wit:

All that certain lot of land, together with the building thereon, situate, lying and being in the Fourth Ward of the city of New-York, on the south side of Chatham street or square, distinguished on a map of the estate of the late Hendrick Rutgers, deceased, dated November 15, 1813, made by Bridges & Popleton, and filed in the Register's Office, New-York, as lot No. 159, bounded northerly in front by Chatham street, or square aforesaid; southerly, in the rear by an alley; easterly, on one side by lot number 158, and westerly, on the other side, by lot number 160; containing in breadth in front, twenty-five feet four inches; in the rear twenty-five feet one inch; in length, on the easterly side seventy-six feet, and on the westerly side seventy-eight feet, be the same more or less—the said premises being now known as No. 107 Chatham street.

The lease of the above premises is for the term of twenty-one years, from the first day of May, 1837, at the yearly rent of $300, payable quarterly, and also taxes and assessments.

The lease provides for a renewal of twenty-one years, at such rent as may be agreed upon between the parties; and in case of disagreement, the rent is to be fixed by disinterested persons, and is not to exceed 5 per cent on the appraised valuation of the lot only.

The lease also provides for three additional renewals, or payment for improvements. The premises are subject to a lease, which will expire May 1, 1859, at a rent of $1,400 per annum.—Dated May 27, 1857.
