A Lovely Drive.—The most beautiful drive in the vicinity of New-York is, beyond all question, that on the line of road leading from Hoboken to Paterson, and recently opened by the PATERSON AND NEW-YORK PLANKROAD COMPANY. This road has a plank and also a gravel track, and for smoothness of surface, easiness and uniformity of grade leaves nothing to be desired by those who can appreciate the enjoyment of a quiet rural drive, with a light or heavy vehicle, along a road FREE FROM DUST, and combining some of the most enchanting scenery to be found anywhere. The splendid view from the east side of the hill about a mile and a half from Hoboken is unrivaled. On the western slope of the same hill, the prospect, so varied and extensive, yet so different, is not less to be admired; while the track beyond the Hackensack River, a perfect level of over two miles, is indeed equal to any racecourse. Again, in going through the gorge at Shawkunk, a scene of quiet loveliness breaks at once upon the sight, formed by the secluded village of Acquackanonk. At Paterson, with its magnificent "Falls of the Passaic," the ride terminates. In passing along and enjoying the beauties of nature, those "creature comforts" so necessary to sustain both man and beast are not found wanting at the various places of entertainment along the line. Those of "Collins & Coleman," beyond the third mile post; Winans, at the Half-Way House, seven miles out; Costner's, on Berry's Hill; Ryerson & Van Orden's, in the village of Acquackanonk; and last, though not least, Brady's, at the Passaic Falls, are alike distinguished, as well by the excellence of their refreshments as by the quiet, gentlemanly attention of their hosts.

Boats leave Christopher-st. on the hours and half hours; Canal-st. at the quarter hours.
