NEW-YORK PUBLISHERS' TRADE SALE. SHELDON, BLAKEMAN & Co., No. 115 Nassau-st., Would invite the attention of buyers to the following valuable publications, all of which will be sold THIS DAY (Tuesday) from their involice in the Publishers' Trade Sales: FLORAL HOME; Or, FIRST YEARS OF MINNESOTA. By Miss Harriet E Bishop. 1 vol., 12mo. Finely illustrated. Price $1. A book of extraordinary attraction, by a lady who early selected Minnesota for her home. With a graphic pen she presents scenes of romantic interest in the first settlement of the Territory; its rapid and splendid career; the moral and social elements of its prosperity; its magnificent prospects; its resources in soil and waters, and the inviting field it opens to the emigrant and settler of every persuasion and pursuit. The handsome volume is profusely illustrated with striking views of waterfalls, rivers and distinguished persons. CHILDHOOD: ITS PROMISE AND TRAINING. By W. W. Events, D D. 1 vol. Price 75c. From The Louisville Journal. "As presenting more fully and justly the claims and promise of childhood, and in depth and range of thought, this work is far beyond any we have yet seen upon the same subject. To those who are acquainted with his characteristics as a writer, the name of the author will be a sufficient guaranty for its literary merit. The style of the composition is original and impressive, bold and vigorous rather than elaborate and finished; the diction elegant, and the illustrations truthful and appropriate. It is adapted to interest and benefit the most philosophical philanthropist and the most humble parent." GRACIE AMBREE. By Mrs Mary A Denison. 1 vol., 12mo. $1 25. Of the many works of fiction that have come from the press within the last ten years, not one has claims of a higher order than this. It is a tale of great power of high dramatic merit, displaying versatility of genius on the part of the author, who seems equally at home in the gay the ludicrous, and the tenderly pathetic, as the several characters of this charming story tempt her to playful humor or to stir the deep emotions of the heart. LIFE-PICTURES FROM A PARSON'S NOTE-BOOK. By Robert Aitchison, D D. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1. GRACE TRUMAN. Or, LOVE AND PRINCIPLE. By Sallie Rochester Ford. With Steel Portrait of the Authoress. 1 vol., 12mo. $1. PRESIDENT NOTT'S LECTURES ON TEMPERANCE. Now ready, a valuable and important work on the use of intoxicating liquors, by President Nott, of Union College, with an able introduction by Prof. Taylor Lewis, with an appendix, containing Mr. Delevan's Letter to Gov. King. Price, $1. THE SAINT AND HIS SAVIOR. By the Rev C. H. Spurgeon. 1 vol. 12mo. Price, $1. This is an entirely new work, never before published in any form. It is the first extended religious work by this distinguished preacher, and one which, in its fervid devotional spirit, the richness of its sentiments, and the beauty of its imagery, fully sustains his high reputation. It will be ready about Sept. 20. SERMONS OF THE REV. C. H. SPURGEON, OF LONDON. First Series—With an introduction and Sketch of his Life, by the Rev E. L. Magoon, D.D. 1 vol. 12mo., 400 pages. With a fine lithograph portrait. Price, $1. Second Series—Revised by the author, and published with his sanction; containing a new steel plate portrait, engraved expressly for the volume. Price $1. Third Series—Revised by the author, and published with his sanction; containing a steel plate view of Surrey Music Hall, London, engraved expressly for the volume. Price, $1. The third series is now ready, and will be issued and the trade supplied on FRIDAY MORNING, Sept. 11. OLSHAUSEN'S COMMENTARIES ON THE NEW TESTAMENT. Revised by A. C. Kendrick, D. D. CRIME and CRIMINALS.—"What is to be done with Crime and Criminals?" "Crime of all kinds is fearfully on the increase among us." "The victims are found in all conditions of society." "Frauds, robberies, and murders not only keep pace with but outrun the intelligence of the age." Such are the prominent and concurrent expressions of the leading newspapers. "Well gentlemen, what are you going to do about it?" "Abolish hanging," says one. "Make punishment less severe and more certain." Give us more hanging" says another. "Make the penalties more terrific" &c. This week's LIFE ILLUSTRATED suggests the causes and a remedy. All Newsmen sell it for 1 cents.
