LITERARY NOTICES.
The publishers take pleasure in acknowledging the kind reception everywhere accorded to their periodical by the people, and, generally, by the press. The first number was, from the nature of the case, hardly a fair index of the character and resources of the Magazine. The present number exhibits a greater variety of matter, and is in every way more vigorous, as well as more attractive. The future will exhibit still further improvements. To combine the greatest amount of healthful entertainment with solid information, and the most able discussion of topics of living interest, will be the constant aim of the conductors of THE ATLANTIC.
The publishers do not agree with the common estimate of the public taste—that it is necessary, at this day, to write down to the people—but they believe, on the other hand, that there are enough readers in this country to appreciate and pay for the best thoughts of the best writers of the times. Therefore, THE ATLANTIC, though high in its aims, and though taking a position which cannot be shared by any existing American Magazine, is offered for sale at a popular price, and appeals to the good sense and good taste of the great mass of the reading public.
For sale by all Booksellers and Newsmen. Price Twenty-five cents a number, or $3 a year.

Among the numerous works for Youth which have been issued, there has been none more successful, and deservedly so, than the "Swiss Family Robinson." "Willis the Pilot" contains the same favorite characters, with the addition of numerous new ones, foremost among whom is Old Willis, one of those "old salts," with his spicy yarns, who become such favorites with the young.
This book has received a large circulation in England, and the American edition will be issued in the handsomest style, with elegant illustrations, fully equal to the English edition.
