FINANCE AND COMMERCE

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS OF MONEY.

Offerings and Sales at the Richmond Tobacco Exchange—Internal Revenue Collections—Foreign Advices.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The stock market, under the influence of higher quotations from London, and the receipt of buying orders from that centre, opened strong to buoyant. An advance of ¼ to ⅜ per cent. occurred in the first transactions, but the rise was soon checked by a drop in Leather preferred from 62 to 58½, the stock still feeling the effect of the passing of the dividend. The bears then seized upon the Washington news concerning the agitation in the Senate looking toward the recognition of the Cuban belligerents as a pretext for a break in prices, and hammered the list with great vigor. Prices yielded slowly at first, but as round amounts of the leading shares were thrown upon the market the downward movement was accelerated, and during the afternoon a general decline of ½ to 5 per cent. ensued. The fact that houses with Washington connections were prominent as sellers gave color to the reports that a feeling of apprehension existed as to the outcome of the much-talked-of Senate resolutions on the Cuban question. Many stop orders were caught on the way down, and a number of small traders were shaken out of their stocks. Particular attention was paid to Sugar, and the stock broke from 118⅝ to 112⅝ on sales of nearly 90,000 shares, the leading bulls were credited with heavy purchases at the lower range. General Electric, Chicago Gas, Louisville and Nashville, Manhattan, the Grangers, Lackawanna, Tennessee Coal and Iron, Jersey Central, the Southwestern shares, and Pacific Mail yielded anywhere from ½ to 3 per cent. Tobacco was rather firmer than the rest, and Northern Pacific ruled positively strong, rising 2⅝ to 17⅝, and closing at 16½. Shortly before the close there was a rush to cover Sugar, prices rallied ¼ to 2 per cent., Burlington and Quincy, Leather preferred, Sugar, and Tobacco leading. Among the specialties Baltimore and Ohio rose 2⅝ to 30, but later lost the improvement. Leather preferred figured for 46,[illegible] shares, St. Paul for 45,400, Louisville and Nashville for 31,900, and Tobacco for 26,400 shares. The total transactions were [illegible] shares. Speculation left off steady in tone at the recovery noted. Bonds were lower. The sales footed up $1,294,000.

Money on call easy at 2@3½ per cent., last loan at 3 per cent., and [illegible] offered at 3 per cent.; prime mercantile paper, 6@7 per cent. Bar silver, 78. Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at 486@[illegible] for sixty days and 487@488 for demand; posted rates, 487@488; commercial bills, 485¾@486. Government bonds lower. State bonds dull. Railroad bonds easier. Silver at the board was weaker.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The Sun's cotton review says:

Cotton advanced 1 to 4 points, but reacted, closing 3 points lower on the crop and unchanged on the next. The close was quiet, with sales of 129,900 bales.

To-day's features: Talk of short time in some parts of New England and merely a "Trojan horse" designed to capture the bullish citadel and put down prices. Some profess to believe so. But for all that, the announcement that some of the mills in New Hampshire and elsewhere are to run on half time was not its effect, for it is well known that the cotton goods are dull, and have been dull for a long period, while prices have been steadily declining. Other features prejudicial to bullish interests to-day were rather liberal receipts at New Orleans and Savannah, the Cuban resolution in the Senate, the decline in the stock market, dullness and depression in spot cotton, fears of gold exports, apprehension of a revision of the cotton differences here, continued selling by Liverpool, local and southern liquidation, and a weak closing across the water. Weld & Co. and other commission houses continue to sell. Houses are understood to have sold again in Liverpool. They have been doing that, it appears, for several days past.

In the first tracing in cotton to-day there was a moderate advance, as the Liverpool advices were more favorable than had been expected, while the receipts at Galveston, Houston, and Memphis were small, but later on Liverpool weakened, and the budget of other bearish news depressed the price. There is still a tendency here to oversell the market, however, and especially the market for the new crop months, and they showed more strength. Shorts are most reliable buyers in the market. Manufacturers can put off buying for a good while, but shorts cover to come to time within specified limits.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 28.—81. Louis led the advance in wheat to-day, the market at this place deferring to the more pronounced strength coming from that quarter. The opening this morning was firm, a recession of prices following, but soon strength became permanent, and prices advanced, holding the gain. The bulls exhibited a disposition to press every advantage, whilst on the other hand the short sellers were inclined to keep out of the market or else to help along the boom. May wheat opened from 69½c. to 69¾c., sold between 69¾c. and 68¾c., closing at 69¾c., ⅝c. higher than yesterday. Cash wheat was 1c. higher.

Corn—Nothing of real interest in corn developed to-day. The rise in wheat naturally tended to assist prices in this grain, but only moderate firmness prevailed. The early easy feeling in wheat was followed with more alacrity than the later advancing tendency, but was of a minor character, no transactions of more than an ordinary kind taking place. May corn opened at 30¾c., sold between 30¾@30⅝c. and 30⅝@30⅝c., closing at 30⅝c., a shade higher than yesterday. Cash corn was firm and ¼c. per bushel higher.

Oats—Dullness was the conspicuous feature of the oats market. The movement of prices was slow, the lead of wheat and corn being followed in all cases. May oats closed a shade higher than yesterday. Cash oats were ¼c. higher.

Provisions—Around the opening provisions declined, but subsequently the feeling became steadier, and a portion of the loss was recovered. The weakness came from the yards, where hogs were again in excess of expectations and prices lower. Business attracted no particular attention, nothing extraordinary taking place. At the close May pork was 5c. lower, May lard 2½c. lower, and May ribs a shade lower. Domestic and foreign markets were quiet and steady.
