LEADING ISSUES GO MOSTLY LOWER

New York, Feb. 16 (Wall Street). — The only pronounced changes in the early stages of to-day's stock market were the specialties, Pittsburgh Coal, Pfd., advancing three points, while Mexican Petroleum most an additional two points. Leading issues were mostly lower, the Harrimans, Reading, New York Central, United States Steel and Copper receding fractionally. There was further selling of bonds for future delivery, indicating a recurrence of foreign liquidation. Important stocks showed more steadiness at the end of the half hour.

Speculative favorites made some improvement after their initial decline, but the market showed an undercurrent of caution throughout the early session. Specialties continued to be the conspicuous feature, Texas Company falling over four points. Declines of a point or two were recorded by American Sugar and Central Leather. Another severe decline in foreign exchange gave rise to renewed rumors regarding gold imports. Heavy buying of the new Pennsylvania 4½ per cent. bonds at advances over yesterday's quotations was an oset to the otherwise lower bond market.
