THE EIGHT-PAGE EXTRA SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE!
We have already printed and disposed of a very large edition of our EIGHT-PAGE EXTRA SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and shall put to press another edition this morning. The following is a list of its contents:
1. The SPEECH in our City of the Hon. FREDERICK P. STANTON, late United States Secretary for the Territory of Kansas, narrating the recent course of events in Kansas and exposing the frauds in which the Lecompton Constitution originated, and the chicaneries and villainies by which those who dare not submit it for adoption or rejection to the People of Kansas are yet scheming and striving to force it upon them through the action of Congress, backed by the President and the Federal Army;
2. The LETTER of the Hon. GEORGE BANCROFT, Secretary of the Navy under President Polk, reprehending the Lecompton Imposture and insisting that no Constitution be imposed on Kansas which shall not have been fairly ratified by her People;
3. The REPORT to the Senate of the Hon. JAS. A. GREEN of Missouri, setting forth, in behalf of a bare majority of the Committee on Territories, the grounds on which Congress is asked to accept and ratify the Lecompton Constitution as that of the State of Kansas, and the bill proposed to effect that object;
4. The MINORITY REPORT of the Hon. Messrs. COLLAMER and WADE, Republican members of the Committee aforesaid, protesting against the imposition of the Lecompton Constitution on Kansas;
5. The MINORITY REPORT of the Hon. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, Chairman of the Committee on Territories, showing why and wherein an honest exposition of and adherence to the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska act, also to the grounds on which the Topeka Constitution was resisted in the last Congress, and to the explicit pledges of the Cincinnati Platform and of President Buchanan, imperatively require of Congress the rejection of the Lecompton Constitution;
6. The LETTER of Regent CALHOUN of Kansas, trying to clear himself from the imputations of fraud and juggling in the matter of the Election Returns under the Lecompton Constitution.
—These documents, we believe, in connection with Mr. Buchanan's late Extraordinary Message, which has already obtained universal currency, afford a full and fair view of the momentous struggle now in progress from its three several a
