MORE ACTIVITY ON STOCK EXCHANGE

More Pronounced Influence on Market Is Selling for Europe.

TENSION IN MONEY MARKET

This Operates as a Restraint on Any Demand for Stocks.

NEW YORK, October 3.—There was more activity on the Stock Exchange to-day, and the pressure was less passive than yesterday. The most pronounced influence in the day's market was the large selling for foreign account, not only on orders from London, but also, it was said, from Amsterdam and European points.

Continued tension in the money market was a restraint on any demand for stocks, and kept the market vulnerable so far to attack.

The rate for call loans did not go so high as yesterday, and showed a tendency to relax from the early high level. For the first time this week the banks showed a gain on the day's subtreasury operations, which were influenced by the payment of government interest. Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $1,178,000. United States 4s declined 1-4 per cent. on call.

NEW YORK, October 3.—Money on call strong; 3@8 1-2 per cent.; ruling rate, 7 1-2; closing bid, 7 1-4; offered at 7 3-4. Time loans firm; sixty days, 6 per cent., and ninety days, 6 1-2 per cent.; six months, 6 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 7 per cent. Sterling exchange weak, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.8555@$4.8560 for demand, and at $4.8220@$4.8225 for sixty-day bills. Commercial bills, $4.81 1-2@$4.81 5-8. Bar silver, 66 1-2. Mexican dollars, 51 5-8.

BALTIMORE STOCK MARKET.

BALTIMORE, MD., October 3.—Seaboard Air Line, common and preferred—Nothing doing.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, October 3.—The cotton market ruled irregular during to-day's session with the close quiet and steady with a net decline of 3@8 points. Sales estimated at 200,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of 2@6 points, which was just about as due on the cables. Immediately afterwards it sold off to a net loss of 6@9 points on the active months under liquidation and bear pressure, which was promoted by the break in the English market after the local opening and the good weather in the South as shown by the early map. But only January made a new low record, selling at 10.83, and the market had quite a rally during the middle of the session on covering of shorts and reports from the South that farmers were refusing to sell their cotton at any concession. After working up to a net advance of about 2@3 points the market eased off again, however under a renewal of Wall Street pressure, and the close was well off from the best of the day. The leading outside operator issued a crop estimate of 13,533,000 bales. The western belt forecast called for showers and lower temperatures, helping the improvement during the middle of the day. Wires from the Southwest say that farmers are storing between one-half and two-thirds of their cotton.

Receipts at the ports to-day were 25,587 bales against 32,409 last week and 40,006 last year. For the week 250,000 bales against 220,199 last week and 313,576 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 3,123 bales against 6,907 last year, and at Houston 3,977 bales against 16,674 last year.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed quiet and steady.
