The "Commodore" Excursion.—At a meeting of the passengers on the steamboat Commodore, held Aug. 7, 1858, John H. Tobitt was called to the chair, and Thos. E. Isaacks appointed Secretary.

The Chairman having stated the desire of many gentlemen present to express their disappointment in having brought their families and friends on board, in anticipation of a "Grand Concert" and operatic music, the whole of which was a pure-faced imposition, a Committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions, who shortly offered the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, At least two thirds, if not more, of the company here assembled, were induced to purchase their Excursion Tickets on the printed and personal assurance of not only being entertained by a "Splendid Band of Music" in lieu of listening to a "Grand Concert of Operatic and Classical Music" and whereas, not only this proved to be false, but the explanation of "Mr. Brown," alias Jenny C. Jarrett, still more insulting, in affecting to regard the promised music as "a joke" therefore

Resolved, That we, the passengers now assembled, hereby express our unmeasured indignation at such wholesale disappointment to the hundreds around us, and we will endeavor to extort whatever remedy either law or public opinion will give us in the premises.

Resolved, That the above be published in the daily papers of New-York.
JOHN H. TOBITT, Chairman.
THOS. E. ISAACKS, Secretary.
[Signed by the passengers.]

NOW READY:
THE EIGHTH VOLUME
OF
COLONEL BENTON'S ABRIDGMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS.

It embraces the period of John Quincy Adams's Administration, and consequently contains the celebrated debate on the appointment of representatives to the proposed Diplomatic Congress at Panama. In that debate the great questions of international law, and of the proper relations and positions of this country with respect to other States of the Continent, were discussed by some of the ablest minds that the country has produced. The speech of Colonel Benton on this occasion was pronounced by Mr. Randolph "the ablest that had been delivered in Congress since John Marshall's speech in the Jonathan Robbins case," in 1800.

THE STUDENT OF
THE POLITICAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES
WILL FIND INTERESTING PASSAGES IN THIS VOLUME ON Agriculture, Amendments to the Constitution, Important Appropriations, Prevention of Desertion in the Army, Occupation of the Columbia River, the Creek Indian Negotiation, Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, Duties on Imports, Executive Powers, Petitions from Foreigners, Suspension of Habeas Corpus, Imprisonment for Debt, Indian Tribes, Internal Improvements, Judiciary System, Gratitude to La Fayette, Naval Schools, Inland Trade between New-Mexico and Missouri, Explorations of North-West Coast, Occupying Claimant Laws, The Panama Mission, Secret Executive Proceedings, Penal Code of United States, Piracy in the West Indies, Presidential Election in the House, Public Lands, Revolutionary Bounty Lands, Negro Slavery in South America, Navigation of Western Rivers.

GEOLOGY and the BIBLE.
PUBLISHED THIS DAY:
THE EARTH AND THE WORLD;
OR, GEOLOGY FOR BIBLE STUDENTS.
BY S. R. PATTISON, F. G. S.
With Colored Map, 63 cents.

This work has been highly applauded by the British Religious Press. It is an endeavor to exhibit truth, physical and moral. It does not advance any new theory of interpretation either of the Earth or the Word of God, but is an impartial examination of both records together, with equal reverence as being of equal authority. STANFORD & DELISSER, Publishers.
The Trade supplied. No. 506 Broadway.
