Meetings.

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, Office of the Secretary.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the regular annual and general meeting of stockholders of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company will be held at the office of the company, at Byrd Street Station, in the city of Richmond, Va., on TUESDAY, THE 16TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, A. D. 1909, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the election of directors and other officers and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before the meeting, including the following, or any of them, namely:

1. For the purpose of considering and passing upon, authorizing and consenting to the making, issue and disposition, by sale or otherwise, by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company of gold bonds not exceeding in the aggregate the par value of $200,000,000, bearing interest at not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, and maturing at such date or dates as may be determined by the board of directors, and the creation, execution and delivery by the said railroad company of a mortgage or deed of trust upon or conveying certain of its property, to be described in said mortgage, to secure the payment of the said bonds to such trustee, in such form and upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors may determine, and the use or disposition of such bonds or their proceeds for the payment or retirement from time to time of the underlying mortgage bonds of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, and for the retirement by exchange of the 4 per cent. Certificates of Indebtedness of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, not exceeding $23,562,500, authorized by resolutions of the stockholders and board of directors of said company, adopted on June 16, 1902, in accordance with the terms set forth in said resolutions, and for funding indebtedness of said railroad company, paying for constructing, completing, improving or maintaining its lines of railroad, or for other corporate purposes for which the proceeds of such bonds may be lawfully used, under the provisions of said mortgage.

2. For the purpose, in order to provide an alternative method of retiring such Certificates of Indebtedness, of considering and passing upon, authorizing and consenting to the making, issue and disposition by the said railroad company of not exceeding $23,562,500 of its 4 per cent. debenture bonds, to mature and be redeemable as the board of directors may determine, and to the making, execution and delivery by the said railroad company of its debenture gold bond contract or agreement with the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, Md., as trustee, concerning the said debenture bonds, and providing for the right of conversion by the holders thereof of said debenture bonds into the common capital stock of the said railroad company, at the times, in such form and upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors, acting under the authority of the stockholders, may determine.

3. For the purpose of considering and passing, upon, authorizing and consenting to such an increase of the issue of the common capital stock of said railroad company as will be sufficient, together with the issue of such common capital stock heretofore authorized by said stockholders, but not issued, to provide such number of shares of such common capital stock as will suffice to enable the said railroad company to retire any or all of its said debenture bonds, if desired by the holders thereof, by the conversion of the same into such common capital stock pursuant to the authority which may be granted by the said stockholders, and in such form and upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors may determine.

And generally to take any and all action that may seem necessary or desirable in connection with, germane to or growing out of any of the matters hereinabove stated.

The stock transfer books of the company will close Wednesday, November 3, 1909, at 3 o'clock P. M., and will be reopened on Wednesday, November 17, 1909, at 10 o'clock A. M.

By order of the Executive Committee.
