Capt. Labuzan, the gentlemanly and attentive Secretary of the Board of Health, kept his office till one o'clock on Sunday afternoon, in the hope of being able to furnish the reporters for publication on Monday's papers. His labors not, however, every of the sections returning, yesterday morning, to furnish a report of note. It seems rather curious that a return of burials up to Saturday night cannot be furnished before Monday forenoon. These easy going habits need a stirring up, and we hope they will get it.

PROBABLE MURDER.—Last evening, a little after eight o'clock, Mr. John Bisley, a carpenter, who keeps a little shop on St. John street, near Gommier, went into Garry Oldis's coffeehouse, at the corner of Bienville and Rampart streets, and called for some brandy. He was given to him; upon drinking it, he called for water, and at the same moment commenced staggering backward, and fell upon the floor. He was assisted up, and placed in a chair; he then renewed his call for water, saying it was the last drink he would ever take, as he was bleeding inwardly and dying. He fainted, and while he was on Dryades street, somewhere above Triton Walk, some one came up behind him and stabbed him in the back with a cane-sword; that the blade broke off, and remained in his back; that he pulled it out and threw it away; and that he came down town, falling down three times on the way. He was immediately conveyed to the Circus Street Hospital. A small orifice was found in his back, with no outward bleeding; but at 11 o'clock he was in much suffering, spitting clotted blood, and the physicians said he was not expecting him to survive many hours. He has the reputation of being a peaceable, quiet man; took no interest in elections; and it is not probable that it was from any election difficulty that he was stabbed. He was for much exhausted to say much or to give the police any clue to the man who stabbed him.

THE CHARTRES STREET FIRE.—The stock of dry goods of Messrs. Gique & Jamison, which was damaged by the water thrown during the fire Friday night, was valued at $37,000. It was all insured, and the underwriters will have to sell it at auction; and it is estimated that they will lose not less than $20,000, and perhaps as high as $30,000. The insurance is divided about equally between all the city offices except the Louisiana and the Home Mutual. The fire was indubitably the work of an incendiary. It broke out in a garret until some empty boxes where no one accounted with the store had been for some days previously. Besides this, the door of the store was forced open, and the iron safe broken open and robbed; the instruments with which it had been opened being found close by it. Messrs. Gique & Jamison offer a reward for the detection of the incendiary.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING.—Hypolite Benoist, a lad fourteen years old, was drowned while bathing in the river at the foot of Toulouse street, with some companions, on Sunday forenoon. The body was recovered yesterday, and Deputy Coroner Mitchell held an inquest upon it and returned an appropriate verdict. The deceased was a son of Mr. Benoist, who keeps a music and stationery store on Conde street, and was one of the choists in our cathedral. We learn that two others of the church boys were drowned while bathing on Sunday—one in the river and the other in the lake—but could obtain no further particulars.

SUNSTROKE.—Deputy Coroner Mitchell yesterday held an inquest on the body of George A. Englehart, a German lad, thirteen years old, found dead in a house in No. 73 Front Levee street, in the Third District. Verdict, congestion of the brain, caused by the heat of the sun. There was another death by sunstroke in the Third District, the particulars of which we did not learn.

FOUND DROWNED.—Deputy Coroner Mitchell yesterday held an inquest on the body of an unknown white man found floating in the river opposite Hope's Steam Saw Mill, in the Third District. Verdict, found drowned. The body appeared to be that of a German, aged forty years of age, had to all appearances been in the water but ten or twelve hours; and could not have been that of the person who fell overboard at the foot of Bienville street a few nights ago.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Deputy Coroner Mitchell yesterday held an inquest on the body of Margaret Hellman, who died suddenly in a house at the corner of Josephine and Rousseau streets, in the Fourth District. Verdict, disease of the heart. She was a Bavarian, sixty-one years of age.

INQUEST.—The Coroner held an inquest on Sunday evening, on the body of an Irish woman named Catherine Reynolds, who died rather suddenly at her husband's residence, No. 17 Triton Walk. Verdict, died from intemperance and exposure. It was shown at the investigation that neither Catherine nor her husband had been sober for a month.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—Wm. McDonald was arraigned before Recorder Bright yesterday, charged by Thomas McGinness with having cut him in the left side and in the neck and with a knife, on Fourche street, between Tonti and St. Joseph, at nine o'clock on Saturday night. The wounds, however, were not serious. McGinness being able to appear and make his affidavit. The accused was ordered to appear on the 18th for examination, under bail of $1,000.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—This Court was in session yesterday, Judge Reynolds of the Fourth District Court presiding in the absence of Judge Robertson. The divorce case of Jean B. D-Gray vs. his wife, which was much talked of when instituted over two years ago, was tried and a divorce granted.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—Attempt to Kill.—Patrick Wisley, the little boy who undertook to kill Mr. A. Gamsell's slave boy William, on the 24th ult., at the corner of St. Peter and Perdido streets, was yesterday examined in relation thereto, by Recorder Bright, and sent before the First District Court for trial. It appeared that the negro struck him first, and that he drew a knife from his pocket, and commenced sawing away at his throat; the dullness of the knife being what saved the negro's life, he being now well of his wound. Patrick is an orphan, and a very innocent looking little fellow. He was not friendless, however, for he easily furnished bail for $500 for his appearance.

Attempt to Commit a Rape—Mr. Stewart's negro man Sam was examined on a charge of having attempted to commit a rape on the person of Miss Ophelia Wallace, one afternoon about seven weeks since, whilst she was alone, reclining on a sofa, in the back room of the confectionery and soda shop kept by her sister, Cordelia Wallace and herself on St. Charles street, near the corner of St. Joseph. Miss Ophelia told a clear and explicit story, showing that Sam came very near achieving his purpose; she having compelled him to desist by her screams, and subsequently threats to make him suffer. Both the prosecution and the defense were ably conducted by the respective counsel; the only defense made, being a rigorous questioning of the sisters witnesses on the witness stand. The Recorder committed Sam for trial, as charged, in the First District Court; and, with the consent of his counsel, the examination of Mrs. Child's charge—he came as that of her sister—was waived, and he was then sent to the Criminal Court, along with those of the other. To day the sisters will be examined upon Mr. Luther's charge of keeping a disorderly house.

BRUTAL HUSBAND.—Michael Wild was arrested on Harmony street, in the Fourth District, on Sunday morning, for getting drunk and wounding his wife slightly, by cutting her on the forehead with a tumbler. He is in jail awaiting the result.

BOUND OVER.—J. Alains, accused of stealing four dollars from the stand of James Rouide, in the Fordras Market, on the 31st ult., was yesterday examined. There being no proof that he took the money, but it being proved that he had a row with Rouide at the time, he was bound over in $300 to keep the peace for three months.

FORGERY.—Rene Salaun, residing at the corner of Ursulines and Robertson streets, was yesterday arrested before Recorder Bright, on a charge of having swindled Mr. Henry Gilmore out of $20, by borrowing that amount from him and giving his note for the payment at ten days, said note being endorsed by J. Shaw, which J. Shaw he has not been able to find any more than to pay his money back from Salaun. He gave bail to appear for examination on the 18th inst.

ASSAULT WITH A PITCHER.—Mary McKinney is to be examined on the 18th inst., on a charge of having smashed a pitcher over the head of G. L. Cohen, on Perdido street, on Sunday evening. She was required to furnish bail of $300.

AMAZONIAN.—Catherine Delancy was arraigned before Recorder Bright yesterday, on a charge of having treated Mary Ann Speck in a very heathenish manner, on Annunciation street, between Howard and Basin, at twelve o'clock on Saturday night. Mary Ann charged that Catherine beat her over the head with a saucepan, pulled her hair, knocked her down, and finally beat her again over the head with a billet of wood; after which she threatened to kill her with a knife. Catherine furnished bail of $400 to appear for examination on the 18th inst.

A SUPPLIANT.—Mr. Nicholson, an old gentleman from across the ocean, yesterday appeared before Recorder Bright, and, weeping as if his heart would break, clasped his hands, fell on his knees, and begged for the release of his daughter Margaret from Work-house, where she had been sent for begging in the streets. The Recorder told him to begone, and not to return till he could act like a man. In a few moments the old man returned, stood straight up, and offered his petition with an unfaltering voice. The Recorder then gave him an order for his daughter's release, notifying him that a second offence would not be pardoned.

WORK-HOUSE.—Leonora Sontag, for cutting corn-sacks on the levee, and George Wilson, for being found in Mr. Barrett's yard, on Annunciation street, under suspicious circumstances, were yesterday sent out for a month each by Recorder Bright.

WAYWARD GIRL.—A girl named Mary Brown was arrested in a rookery on Union street on Sunday night, by Sergeant Dryden, for having deserted her proper home in Carrollton. Yesterday, Recorder Bright sent her to the House of Refuge.

DISMISSED.—John Ehlef, accused by officer Hays of abducting a German girl named Magdeline from his house, and insulting his wife, was yesterday discharged by the Recorder at Hays' request.

GENTLEMEN'S SPRING AND SUMMER WEAR.—At the old establishment, 62 Gravier street, third door above the Arcade House, may be found an extensive assortment of fresh and fashionable READY MADE GARMENTS, consisting of Overcoats, Frocks and Dress Coats, Pantaloons and Vests, with a large stock of
