LAUDERDALE WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, located in Lauderdale County, Miss.—This fashionable and popular Watering Place, the resort of the elite of the families of Alabama and Mississippi, has now for universally recognized by the medical faculty and the public, as now made and in every respect equal to any of the celebrated springs of Virginia, and lines of six and four horse stages connecting North, East and West, was reopened for the reception of visitors on the 15th May.
Many valuable and elegant buildings have been erected, new furniture has been procured, and the entire premises since last season, have undergone a thorough renovation. The Springs have large and airy rooms, constructed and furnished with a view to the comfort and convenience of guests.
The proprietor assures the public in general, as well as the old patrons of this favorite watering place, that no pains will be spared to make their sojourn at the Springs at one agreeable, delightful and inexpensive to health.
The Ohio and Mobile Railroad passes within one mile of the Springs. The cars are already running within thirty miles, and a line of first class hotels post coaches connect tri-weekly with intersecting railroads from Mobile to the Springs, and the time occupied in conveying passengers from Mobile to the Springs is now reduced to two hours time. This time will be materially lessened on the railroad as soon as the cars will be regularly expected that by the 1st of August the cars will be running with eight miles of the Springs. This line of coaches also connects at Livingston with the Demopolis and Greensboro' Stage line, which runs three times per week, providing Clinton and Columbus lines, thus affording an easy and certain access to one of the most valuable and desirable watering places in the South.
The proprietor, grateful for past patronage, will spare himself of every energy, by attentions to the comfort of the guests, and in short, intends presenting to the patronage of invalids and pleasure seekers a complete establishment.
