THE FRENCH EMPRESS on RIBBONS.—The Empress Eugenie, the French papers by the Niagara state, has resolved to appear in a magnificent costume on the occasion of the wedding of her fair relative to the Duc de Malakoff. Her dress is to be profusely trimmed with ribbons; and having become quite enamoured of the ribbon style of embellishment, she has requested all the ladies of the court to follow her example. The quality, colors, and peculiarity of the ribbons in question, however, are unique, as well as recherche, and elicit universal admiration. We believe nobody has them, in this country, except LICHTENSTEIN. Anticipating the demand that would follow throughout the world of fashion, for anything so exclusively selected by the taste of the Imperatrice, the agent of LICHTENSTEIN, in Paris, bought up all the remaining court-ribbons in the foreign market, and they constitute the general attraction at the "Temple of La Mode," No. 387 Broadway. Chinese ribbons to match the new fashioned silks is what LICHTENSTEIN always prides himself upon keeping on hand in a large assortment, for ribbons are now driving all other articles out of consideration as dress trimmings. He is also able to supply every taste with Paris millinery goods, plain and fancy bonnet silks, satins, velvets, French flowers, ostrich feathers, &c. Beside this, he sells all his very superior goods at the lowest market prices. This fact, and the unvaried politeness of his attendants, account for the crowd that continually fills his establishment of novelties.

THE TRIBUNE MERCANTILE ADVERTISER.—We propose to issue on the 1st day of October next the second number of THE TRIBUNE MERCANTILE ADVERTISER. It will be issued monthly hereafter, and devoted exclusively to the interests and uses of the Mercantile Public, on the following plan:
I. It will contain full reports of the MARKETS, with such other COMMERCIAL and MONEY INTELLIGENCE as shall be deemed of special interest to Merchants.
II. It will be sent without charge by mail, postage prepaid, to 50,000 COUNTRY MERCHANTS who buy goods in New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, or Boston. The names will be selected by Messrs. McKillop & Wood, from those recorded on the books of their Commercial Agency, and they guarantee that not less than 50,000 shall be sent, this being the full number of Country Merchants that they consider it desirable thus to address.
III. The total expense will be defrayed by MERCANTILE ADVERTISING, for which ONE DOLLAR per line will be charged. Those who require their advertisements to be displayed will make special bargains therefor.
It is believed that no equal opportunity for addressing Country Merchants was ever offered in the United States, even at double or treble the cost of this. This sheet is intended for Merchants alone, and will contain no other matter than such as is adapted to their wants. We have every facility for making a MERCANTILE ADVERTISER that will deserve the approbation of Merchants, and we respectfully invite their cooperation. Advertisements received at THE TRIBUNE Office. If by letter, address HORACE GREELEY & Co.,
