Five Points House of Industry.
A CARD.
We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the Institution and says, "We sent you, Sir, a donation of provisions (or money) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it."
Our explanation in most cases is this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; our building is called House of Industry (Mr. PEASE's), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). If our friends about to send us a contribution should direct it to "Five Points Mission, N. Y.," it would NOT reach Mr. PEASE's institution, but would go to the Methodist institution, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. Donations intended for us should be directed, "L. M. PEASE, or B. R. BARLOW, House of Industry, N. Y." Grateful for the liberality of our friends, we feel bound in justice to them and to ourselves to make this statement.
B. R. BARLOW, Superintendent.
L. M. PEASE, General Agent.

Of the reputation which the work has already obtained for thoroughness, and adaptation to the wants of intelligent American readers, the following is one of many testimonials:
From the Hon. Theophilus Parsons, LL.D., Professor of Law in Harvard University.
"Have you room for a word about Ripley & Dana's New Cyclopædia? I have frequent occasions to use one, and I am so delighted with the two volumes we have that I must ask you to allow me the relief of saying very simply what I find them; that is, the very best Cyclopædia for practical use ever published. I have some knowledge of all in our own language, and of a few of those of the Continent of Europe. The best and largest of these surpass this of Appleton's in the extent to which they carry out special dissertations; but this Cyclopædia is full of the best matter. By skilful selection and compression, and sedulous avoidance of mere show and verbiage, room is found for an immense amount of the latest information, put forth clearly, carefully and accurately. The book embodies and adequately represents the ability and knowledge available at this day for a work of the kind.
"Its merit and extreme cheapness must place it eventually in every library; and if a good word from one who has found out its excellence by making use of it, can hasten or extend its diffusion, my purpose in writing this brief notice will be accomplished."
The volume contains articles on—
W. C. Bryant, H. T. Buckle, Thomas Carlyle, Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, Lady Bulwer, Lord Byron, Lady Byron, Ada Byron, Burns, Camoëns, Cervantes, Cesare Cantu, Inez de Castro, Beatrice Cenci, Beau Brummel, John and Sebastian Cabot, E. T., W. and W. H. Channing, the Calverts of Baltimore, Champollion, Julius Cæsar, Carthage, Byzantine Empire, Butterfly, Caged Birds, Cat, Camel, Carrier Pigeon, Charivari, Charlemagne, Catharine De Medici, Cagliostro, Carbonari, Calisthenics, University of Cambridge, the Rev. John Caird, Count of Chambord, and numerous others.
Among the contributors to The New American Cyclopædia are—
The Hon. Edward Everett, Prof. Felton of Harvard, M. Brown-Sequard of Paris, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Richard Hildreth, George Ticknor, George S. Hillard, Henry T. Tuckerman, Wm. Gilmore Simms, John R. Thompson of the Southern Literary Messenger, Prof. Johnson of Yale, Prof. Cutting of Rochester University, C. L. Flint, Secretary to the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture.
Vol. 5 will be ready in January.

THE ILLUSTRATED
LONDON ALMANACK FOR 1859,
CONTAINING
Twelve Emblematical Designs to the Calendar, Fifteen Beautiful Fine-Art Engravings, and Twenty-three Diagrams of the Comet and of the Appearances of the Planets and of the Stars; also,
GROUPS OF BIRDS OF GREAT BRITAIN,
PRINTED IN COLORS. Drawn and described under the superintendence of J. GOULD, esq., F. R. S.
With a vast amount of useful and interesting information, rendering THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON ALMANACK at once the most acceptable and elegant companion to the library, boudoir, or drawing-room; while, as regards price, it is universally acknowledged to be, without exception, the cheapest Almanack ever published.
The unprecedented demand for THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON ALMANACK last year has stimulated the proprietors to still greater exertions to secure for this Almanack a reputation as favorable as that which has hitherto placed its circulation second only to that of The Illustrated London News.
THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON ALMANACK is inclosed in an elegant cover, PRINTED IN COLORS, by the same process as the Groups of Birds, and forms a charming companion and pleasing ornament to the drawing-room.
