The Committee beg to state that they are now in correspondence with several of our most popular public orators, several of whom have kindly offered their services, and from others a favorable answer is daily expected.
The full particulars with regard to the prices of admission, names of the orators, patrons, managers, &c., will be given in a future advertisement.
TO THE PUBLIC.
It is now some four years since public attention was first directed to the imminent danger in which Mount Vernon was situated. As regards its possession, all attempts made for the purpose of inducing Congress to secure the Home and Tomb of Washington as the property of the Nation lamentably failed, and it was only when that eloquent and high-minded orator, Edward Everett, forced the country to recognise the disgrace which threatened it, that they evinced any interest in its possession; the result of that awakened interest was the foundation of a Ladies' National Committee, whose object was to raise means for the purchase of Mount Vernon. Though the labor of Edward Everett, and others equally praiseworthy, has realized a large fund, yet the object for which this Association was created has not yet been fulfilled—a larger amount is yet necessary. They believe that a series of Festivals of the character now proposed, given throughout the entire country, will materially increase the fund. They confidently solicit the support, sympathy and cooperation of all true patriots in this most laudable enterprise.
