GEO. STARR,

Five Points House of Industry.
A CARD.
We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the Institution and says, "We sent you, Sir, a donation of provisions (or money) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it."
Our explanation in most cases is this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; our building is called House of Industry (Mr. PEASE's), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). If our friends about to send us a contribution should direct it to "Five Points Mission, N. Y.," it would not reach Mr. PEASE's institution, but would go to the Methodist institution, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. Donations intended for us should be directed, "L. M. PEASE, or S. R. BARLOW, House of Industry, N. Y." Grateful for the liberality of our friends, we feel bound in justice to them and to ourselves to make this statement.
S. R. BARLOW, Superintendent.
L. M. PEASE, General Agent.

New Publications.

A NEW PERIODICAL, called the GARDENER'S MONTHLY AND HORTICULTURAL ADVERTISER, published at No. 23 North 6th-st., Philadelphia, and edited by Thomas Meehan (well known by his writings on Horticulture and Botany), has been received by us. Its large size, 24 pages quarto, and its low terms of subscription, $1 per annum, together with its excellent matter and beautiful illustrations, will, no doubt, secure for it a large circulation among our country gentlemen and horticulturists. The article on Central Park, its origin, cost and present condition, accompanied by a full plan, is quite interesting; also a description of Ericsson's Hot Air Engine with experiments as to the cost of running it, with an illustration; New Modes of Grafting, Rustic Work, Foreign Correspondence, &c. New York Agents, A. BRIDGEMAN, No. 176 Broadway, and A. O. MOORE, No. 140 Fulton-st.

SPIRITUAL TELEGRAPH THIS WEEK contains the full particulars of Spirits Expelling a Snake from the Human Stomach, which had baffled physicians 12 years; Marriage; Mysterious Bell-Ringing; Prof. Mitchel on Astronomy; Spiritual Items. Get it at Periodical Depots, 5 cents, or $2 per year, of C. PARTRIDGE, No. 125 Maiden-lane.

THE NEW-YORK MUSICAL REVIEW AND GAZETTE has just entered upon its tenth year. It is published every other SATURDAY by MASON BROTHERS, New-York. Dr. Lowell Mason is one of its regular contributors. Each number contains sixteen quarto pages, including four pages of new Music. Terms—$1 per annum, in advance—Clubs at lower rates; to Clergymen, 50 cents per annum. Specimen copies sent to any address, gratuitously.

A NEW AND CHARMING STORY, by the Author of "Margaret Maitland," "Days of My Life," &c. In the EVENING DAY-BOOK of THIS AFTERNOON, will be commenced a new Story, entitled, ORPHANS: A CHAPTER FROM A LIFE.
By the Author of "Margaret Maitland," from the Advance Sheets from the London publishers.
This is one of this author's best stories. It will be published exclusively in THE DAY-BOOK every FRIDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOON until completed. The paper is served by carriers. Can be had at the Astor House and Brentano's. Office No. 63 Ann-st.

THE LATEST AND GREATEST ANNOUNCEMENT!

ENGAGEMENT OF FELIX DARLEY, BY THE
NEW-YORK MERCURY.

The proprietors of THE NEW-YORK MERCURY realize a just pride and pleasure in announcing the engagement of the world-renowned and inimitable master of the humorous and graphic art,
FELIX O. C. DARLEY, who will hereafter employ his magic pencil in illustrating the series of FIRST-CLASS NOVELETTES, by the best writers in America, which will be published in the columns of the
NEW-YORK MERCURY.
The engagement of Mr. Darley, which was only accomplished after much urgent solicitation, and the offer of the most liberal inducements, will invest THE MERCURY with
AN ARTISTIC PERFECTION IN PICTORIAL DISPLAY, WHICH CANNOT BE EQUALED BY ANY OTHER PAPER,
and will prove the earnestness of our determination to outvie all competition, and make THE NEW-YORK MERCURY
A MODEL OF EXCELLENCE
as a Journal of American Literature and Art.
Mr. Darley has engaged to design exclusively for THE MERCURY, and FOR NO OTHER WEEKLY! and, therefore, no cotemporary sheet can hope to approach THE NEW-YORK MERCURY in the beauty and brilliancy of unique and appropriate illustration.
The first picture from Mr. Darley's pencil will appear in THE NEW-YORK MERCURY dated February 19, 1859, in connection with a splendid romance of the sea, by NED BUNTLINE, entitled SEAWAIF; OR, THE TERROR OF THE COAST. A TALE OF PRIVATEERING IN 1776.

Views on glass include the most noted scenes in every country in Europe, in America, in Egypt and the Holy Land, whether their celebrity is owing to natural beauty or historic association. The monuments of Egypt, Jerusalem and its environs, Constantinople and the Golden Horn, Greece and Italy with their classic ruins the Alps and Pyrenees, the romantic Rhine, the grand Cathedrals, magnificent Palaces, the principal Cities, and all the greatest works of art, ancient and modern, have been prepared for the stereoscope with the most exquisite skill and the most astonishing fidelity.
Paper views include landscapes and noted edifices in America, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Spain, Germany and Holland. These vary in degrees of photographic excellence, but all have the wonderful stereoscopic effect, and convey the most faithful impression of the objects which they represent. In addition to out-door views, the pictures on paper comprise a great variety of scenes, or tableaux vivants, such as Ball-Rooms, Picnics, Fireside and Family Groups, Characters and Situations from the drama, Still Life, such as Game, Fruits and Flowers, Statuary, &c., &c.

Publish This Day:
THE THIRD AND CONCLUDING VOLUME OF
Dr. BARTH'S
NORTH AND CENTRAL AFRICA.
Travels and Discoveries in North and Central Africa. Being a Journal of an Expedition undertaken under the Auspices of H. B. M.'s Government, in the Years 1849-1855. By Henry Barth, Ph. D., D. C. L., Fellow of the Royal Geographical and Asiatic Societies, &c. &c. With a Map and numerous elegant illustrations. Complete in 3 vols. 8vo., Muslin, $7 50; Half Calf, $10 50.
"The researches of Dr Barth are of the highest interest. Few men have existed so qualified, both by intellectual ability and a vigorous bodily constitution, for the perilous part of an African Discoverer as Dr. Barth."—[London Times.
"It richly merits all the commendation bestowed upon it by 'the leading journal' of Europe."—[Corr. National Intelligencer.
Every chapter presents matter of more original interest than an ordinary volume of travels. This is high praise, but it is due to the intelligence and zeal of Dr. Barth, who pursued his adventures with unflinching courage, and neglected no opportunities. His discoveries, in fact, are parallel with those of Dr. Livingstone in the South. We confess that such a relation has for us an intense interest; we are sure that no serious reader will be disappointed in the narrative of Dr. Barth, which, sprinkled with anecdotes, varied by glittering descriptions of landscapes and manners, written with vigor and simplicity, and disclosing amid the gloom of Africa the secrets of centuries, is a rich repertory of knowledge and deserves to take its place among the classics of travel.—[London Leader.
It is the most magnificent contribution of the present century to the cause of geographical knowledge. To have accomplished his task as he has done, in the face of innumerable obstacles and dangers, it dictates the possession of those qualities—that enthusiasm of discovery, that shrewdness of observation, and that practical tact—which lend the charm of heroic and romantic interest to his personal narrative. The discoveries made are of the highest importance as bearing upon the future destiny of the African Continent.—[N. Y. Evangelist.
The most important contribution to geographical science that has been made in our time. Thousands of readers in our country will be anxious to get possession of this treasure of knowledge.—[N. Y. Observer.

THE TRUTHFULNESS (!) of the EXPRESS.—"THE HOTEL ARRIVALS.—The 'Day-Book' says: 'We give two or three more hotels than any other paper.'
"The above statement is not true. The Express gives more hotels than The Day-Book. Brag as much as you please, but don't state what is not the fact."—[Express.
"The above appeared in The Express of Monday evening, and was repeated in their issue of Tuesday morning. It assumes the editors of the Day-Book of making 'a statement that is not true'—in other words, of telling a falsehood. Although the matter is not of great importance, yet the imputation is one we shall not quietly submit to, especially as it is The Express itself that has stated what is 'not true.' For proof of this assertion, we will submit the two papers for inspection. On the very day The Express said it 'gave more hotels than The Day-Book,' it only had sixteen, while The Day Book had seventeen! What does The Express think of itself for making such an assertion as this, and being convicted out of its own columns? We have asked it to make a retraction, and this it refuses to do, or to allow its readers to see our reply to its calumny. It cannot, therefore, blame us if we fully expose it. It knows The Day-Book publishes the best and largest list of hotel arrivals, but it tries to make its readers believe otherwise, and resorts to misstatements to effect it."—[Evening Day-Book, 26.
THE EVENING DAY-BOOK now reports TWENTY-FIVE hotels.

TWO CAPITAL BOOKS
WILL BE PUBLISHED TO-MORROW.
FIRST.
BUCKLAND'S CURIOSITIES
OF
NATURAL HISTORY.
12mo., Muslin. Illustrated. Price $1 25.
From the London Edition.
"In Natural History, as well as in other researches, it is too much the practice to copy facts and observations from printed books, the volume of Nature herself being unopened. It has been the aim of the author to search into this wonderful book, to record facts which came under his own eyes, at the same time not neglecting the numerous works and lectures of celebrated Naturalists; and the book before us is probably the most complete collection of instructive and anecdotal sketches upon the interesting subject of Natural History which has ever appeared."
SECOND.
ETHEL'S LOVE-LIFE.
A New-England Novel. By Mrs. M. J. M. Sweat.
12mo., Muslin. Price $1.
From The N. Y. Evening Post.
"It is in form an autobiography, containing, in a series of love-letters, the history of the growth of an earnest and impetuous mind. The subject affords rare opportunities for psychological analysis, the faculty of which the writer possesses in an eminent degree. She evidently thoroughly understands that fascinating mystery—a woman's heart."
NOW READY, AND SELLING LARGELY,
THE AFTERNOON
UNMARRIED LIFE,
A Companion to
A WOMAN'S THOUGHTS ABOUT WOMEN.
From the Last London Edition.
"We rarely see a book in which strong common sense and an attractive style are so admirably combined in the treatment of an interesting theme as in this remarkable volume. It is a work that cannot be too highly commended, and the author is entitled to the warmest gratitude of her sisters for the candid expression of her honest sentiments upon a subject that must necessarily interest the sex in general."
12mo., cloth. Uniform with "Woman's Thoughts About Women." Price $1.
THE AFTERNOON OF UNMARRIED LIFE.
