VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AND STANDING TIMBER IN BRUNSWICK COUNTY, VA.

As directed by a decree of the Circuit Court of Brunswick County, Va., entered in the chancery cause of Strange et als. vs. Hill et als., the undersigned commissioners will offer for sale, by public auction, in front of the courthouse at Lawrenceville, Va., on

MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1914, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 2 P. M., all that certain tract of land of which the late Mrs. Lucy A. Buford died seized, containing, by recent survey, 670 acres.

The land is situate upon an improved highway about five miles from Lawrenceville, and about two and one-half miles from Exton, a station on the Southern Railroad.

There is a large and comfortable dwelling-house and the usual outhouses standing on the land, and the soil is specially well suited for raising bright tobacco.

There is a large body of valuable timber standing on the land, which, if desired, will be sold separately to suit the purchasers.

TERMS: One-third cash, balance in equal installments, at one and two years, purchaser to execute notes for deferred payments, bearing interest from day of sale, and title to be retained until purchase price is fully paid; but none of the timber shall be cut from said land until the purchase price therefor is fully paid.

E. P. BUFORD,
Lawrenceville, Va.
RICHARD B. DAVIS,
Petersburg, Va.
Special Commissioners.

In the Clerk's Office of Brunswick County:
The bond required of the commissioners in the above suit has been duly executed by them.
W. T. SLEDGE, Clerk.
